Miss Dalcoh,
It has been fun working in your class. You have been the only teacher whom I can really talk to. Stay as you are, because there will be more kids coming to your class just like me. Thank you for your advice,

yours Barbara Johnson

Since Ancient times the Labyrinth has been man's symbol of his relationship with the Universe.

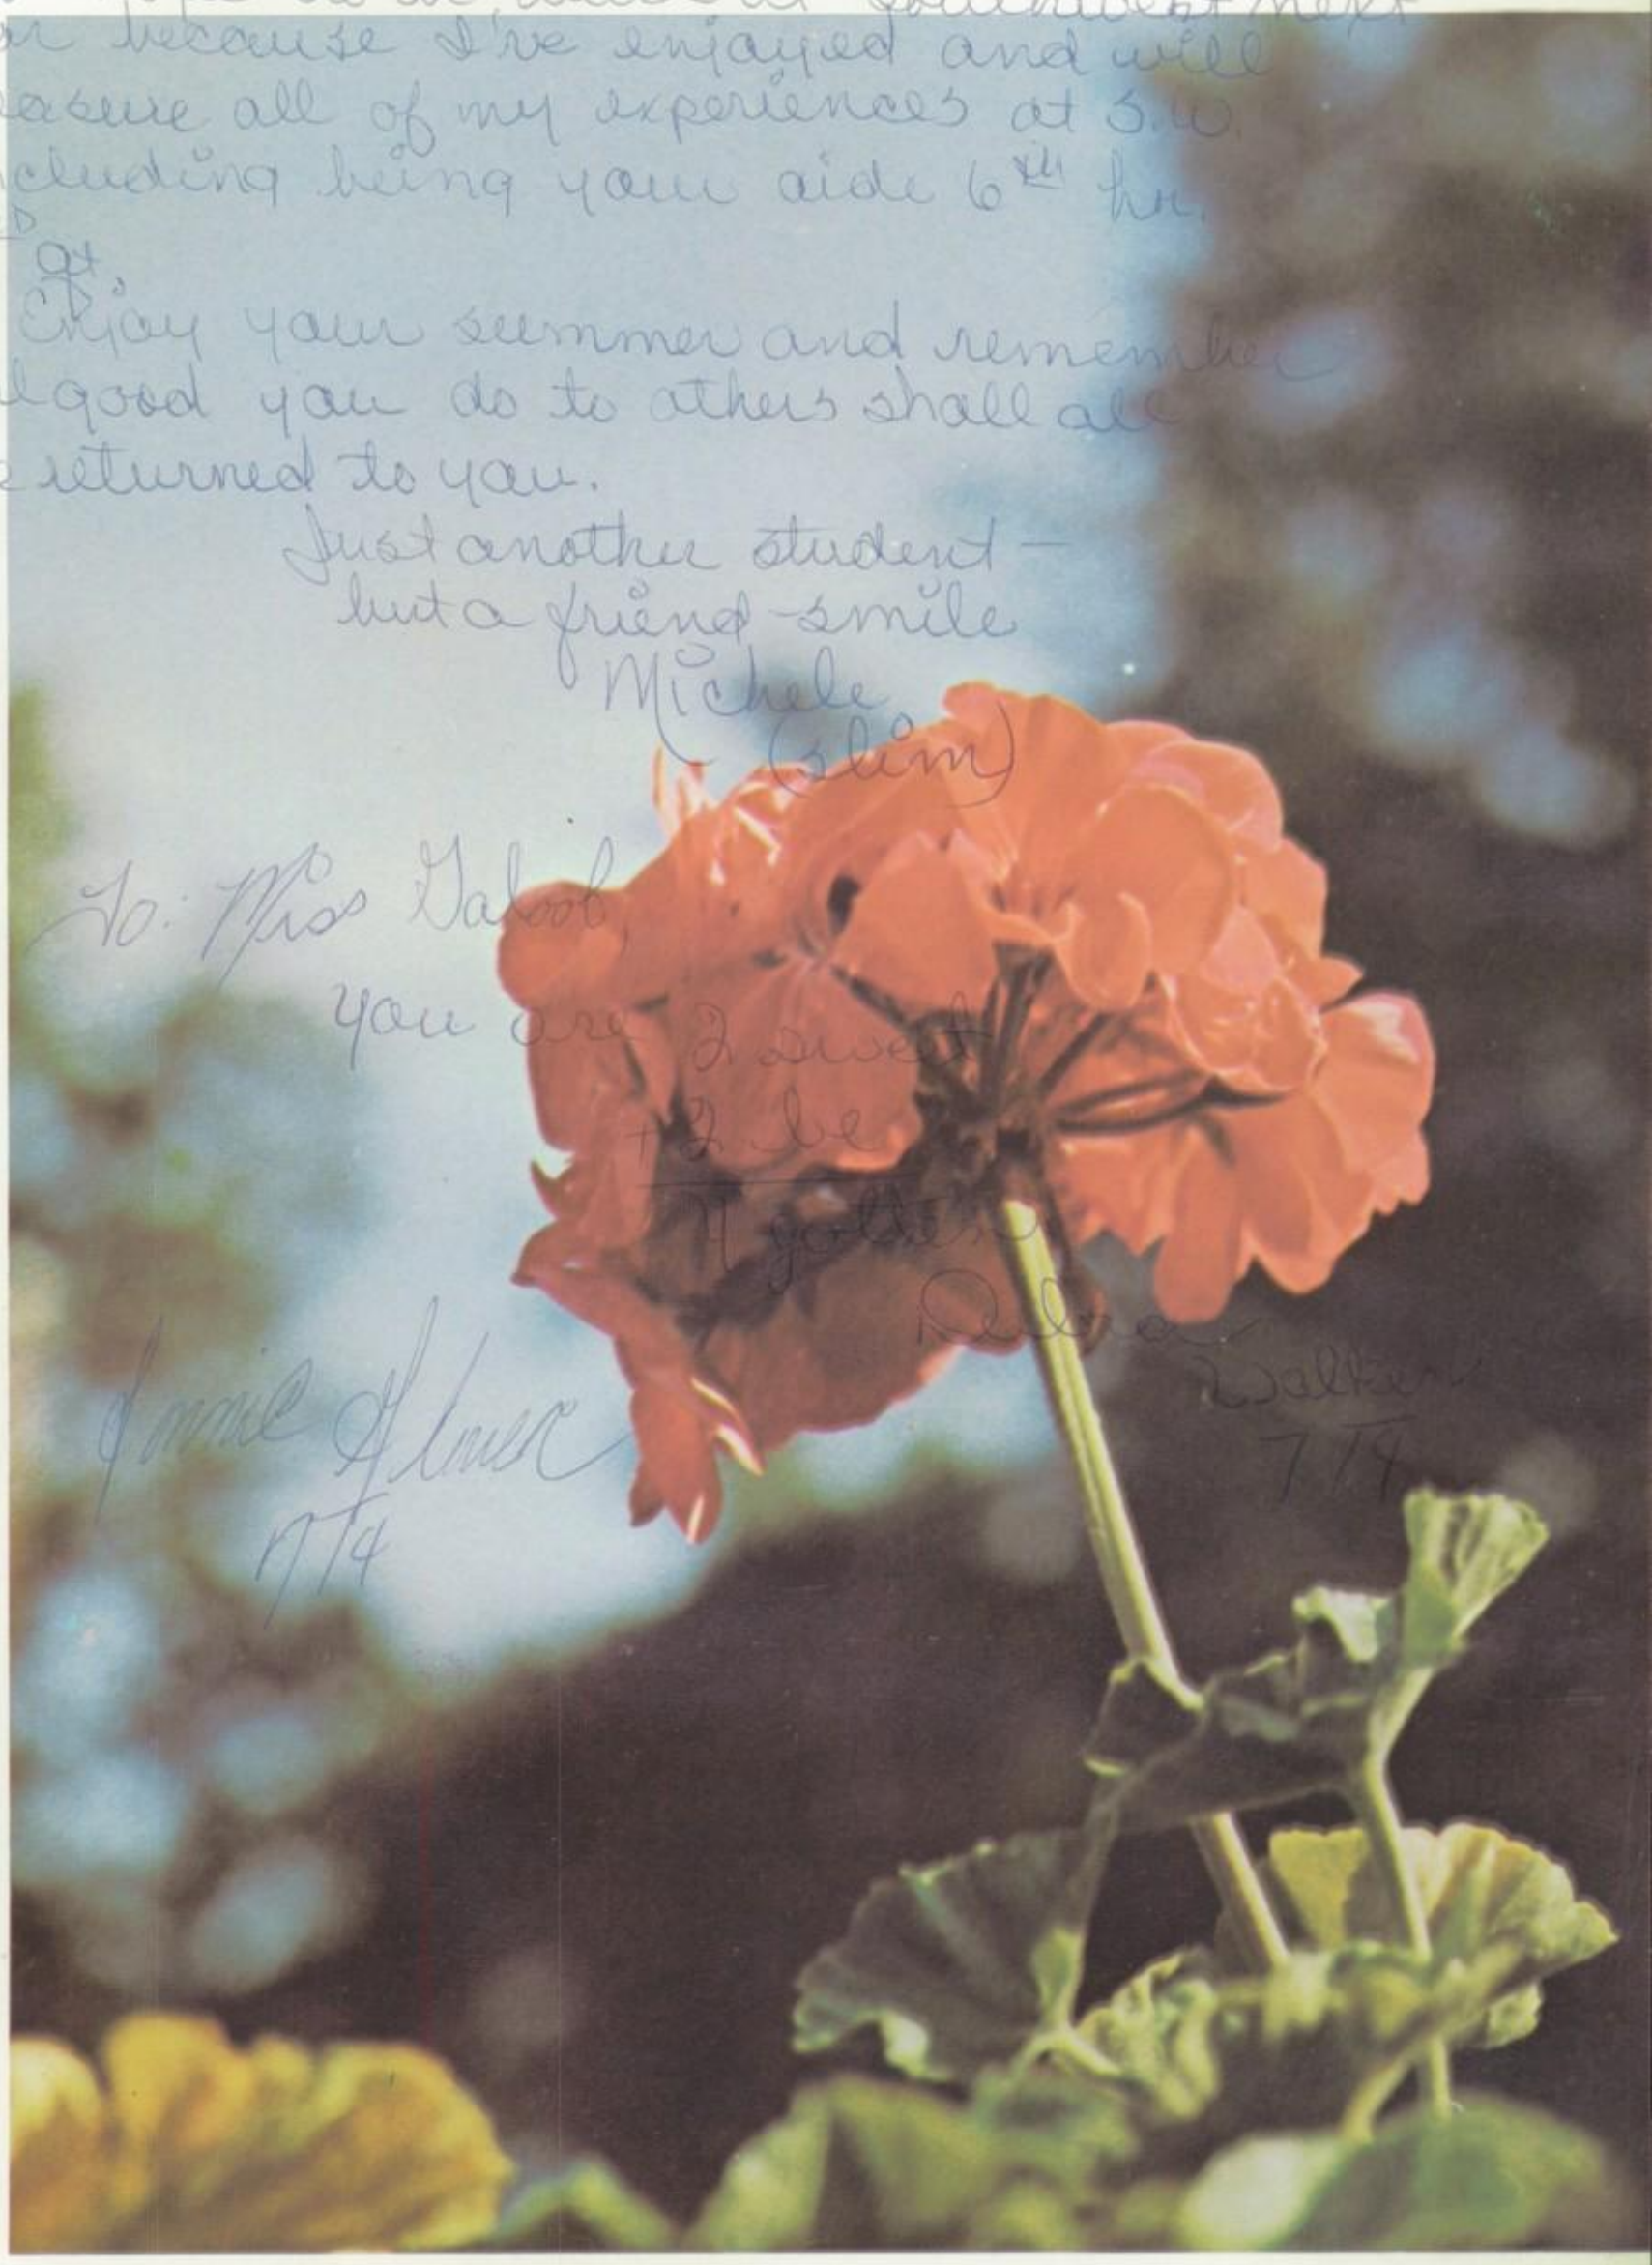
Life like the Universe is vast and unknown.

To a Teacher I enjoyed very much being around and talking to. (One who enjoys Chicago Transit too - smile)

I hope to be back at Southwest next year because I've enjoyed and will treasure all of my experiences at S.W. including being your aide 6th hr. 3rd pd.

Enjoy your summer and remember all good you do to others shall also be returned to you.

Just another student —
but a friend - smile
Michele
(Slim)



Man fears the maze of strange places—the puzzle of unexplained mysteries —the Labyrinth of Himself.

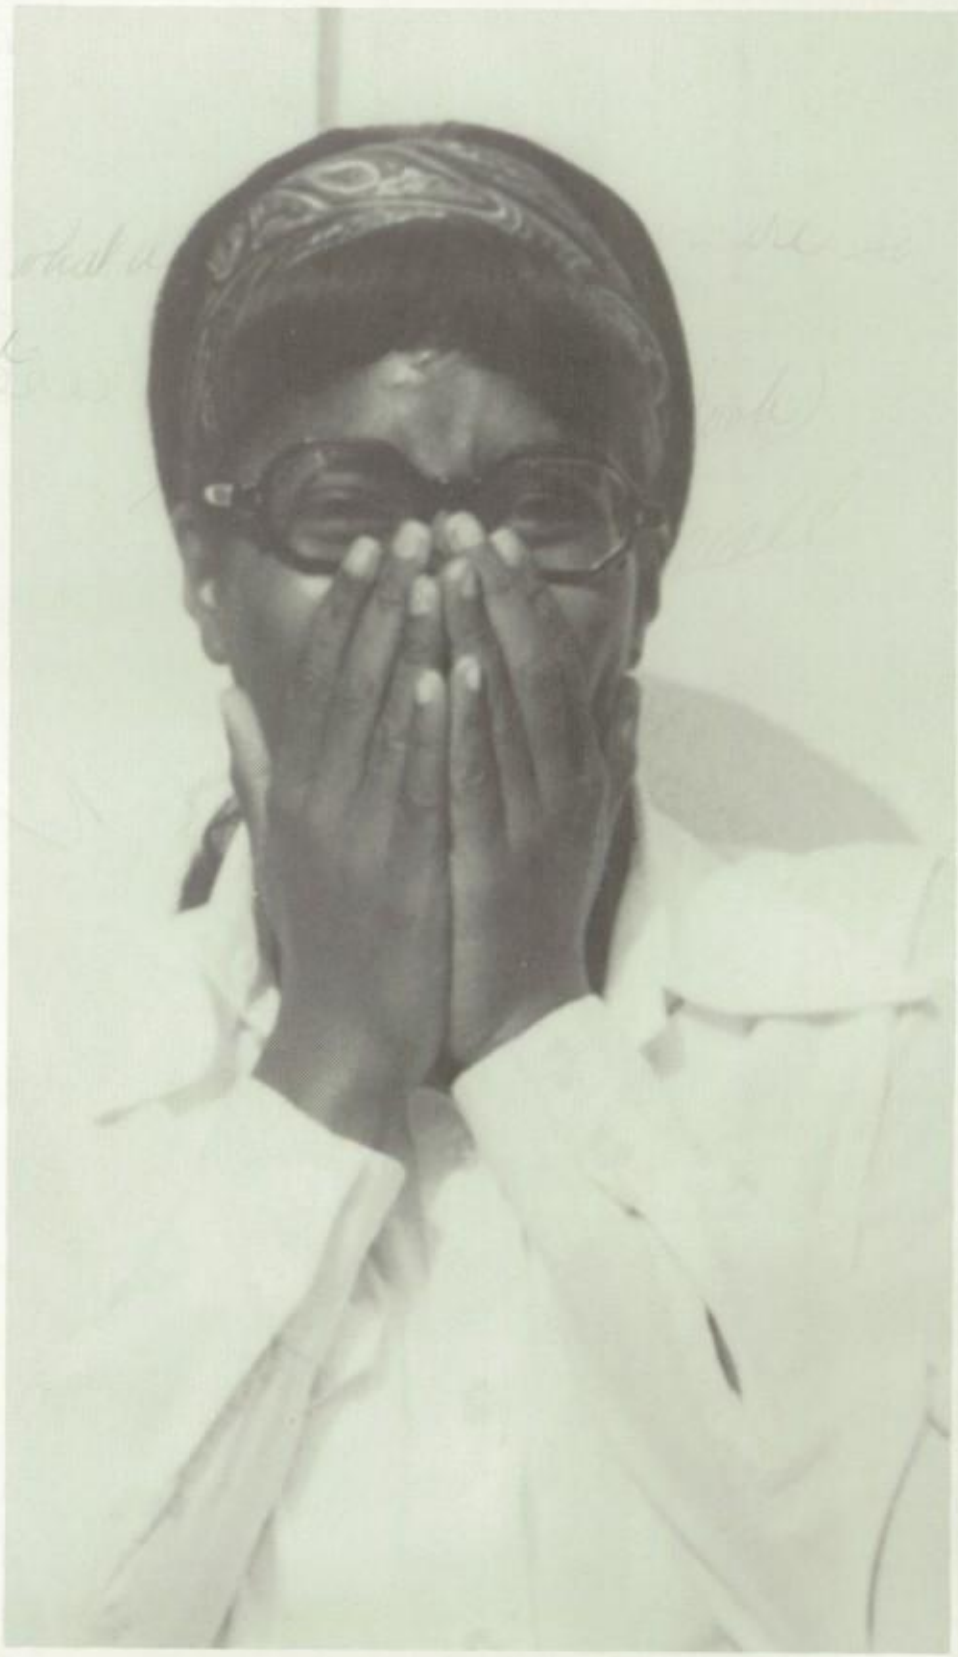
The Labyrinth changes from person to person; making good grades, succeeding in athletics or finding your place in the world—each one follows his own path.



Dear Miss Jacob

You have been a inspiration to me at Southwood High School. You taught me to keep going on when I wanted to quit. I will always admire your ability to do what you have to do. You have made this year almost the best as long as I've been here a wonderful thing. I hope you get out of life, everything you want. Like part you haven't gotten yet, and it takes a lot much. You're a wonderful teacher. I only hope if I take art again, I have a teacher like you. You understand students & try to help them as much as they will let you, & let them helping themselves. I explain what a wonderful person you are. So I will [illegible] explain it to you.

Here are the paths we have followed in the Labyrinth of Nineteen Seventy-Seventy-one.

To Miss Galoob
The nicest teacher
I have had all quarter and I shall miss you during the Summer.

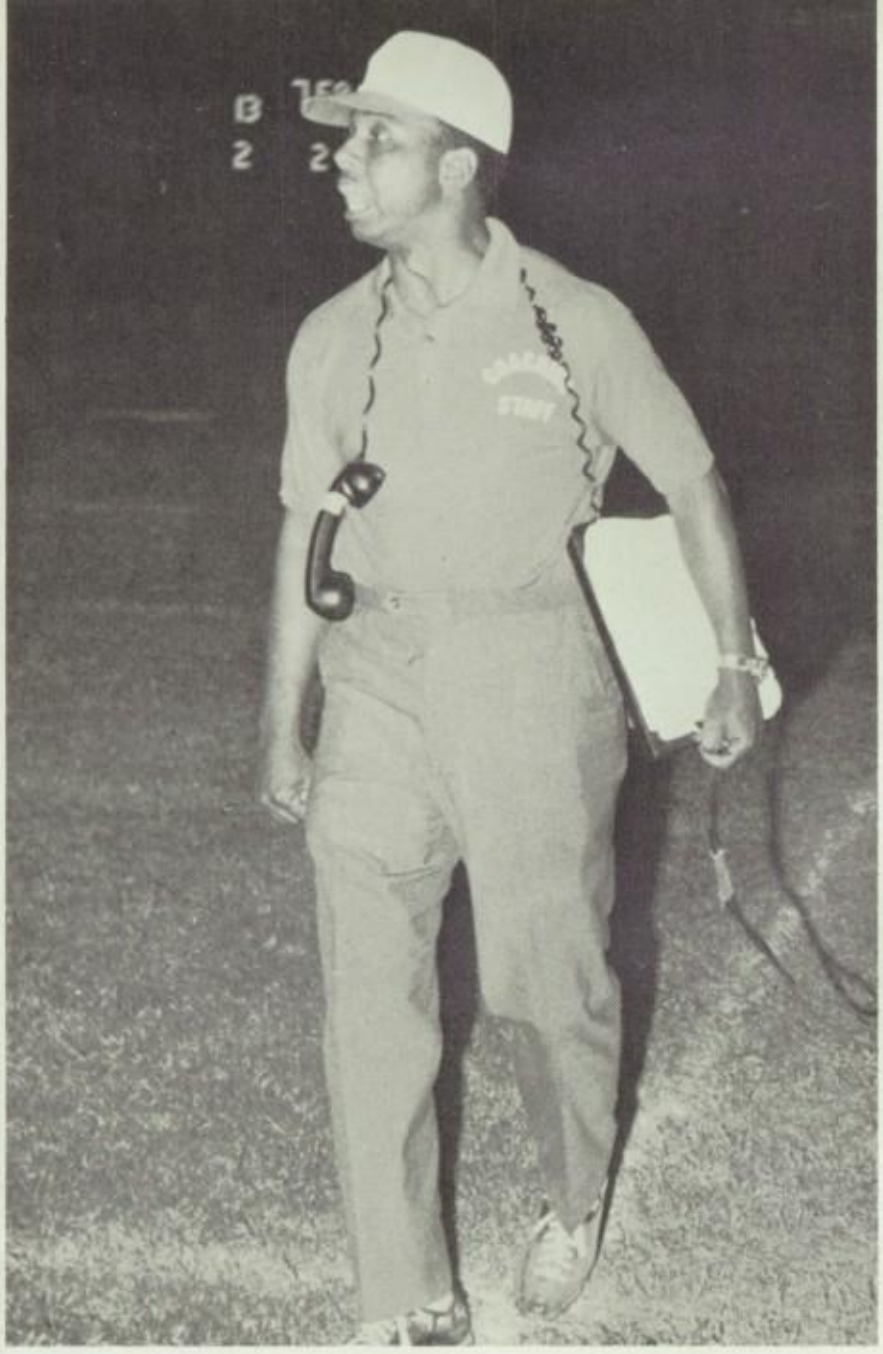
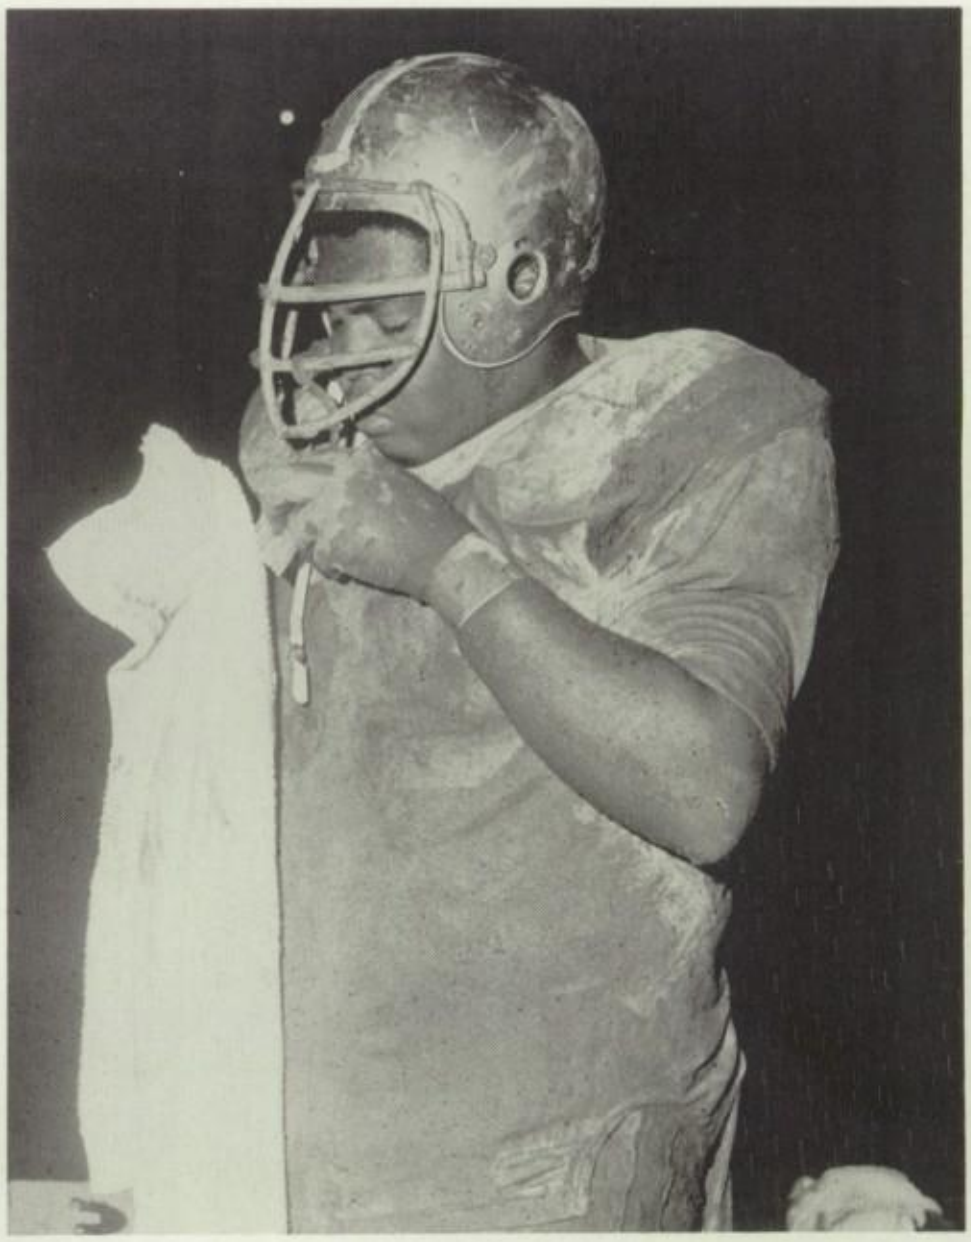
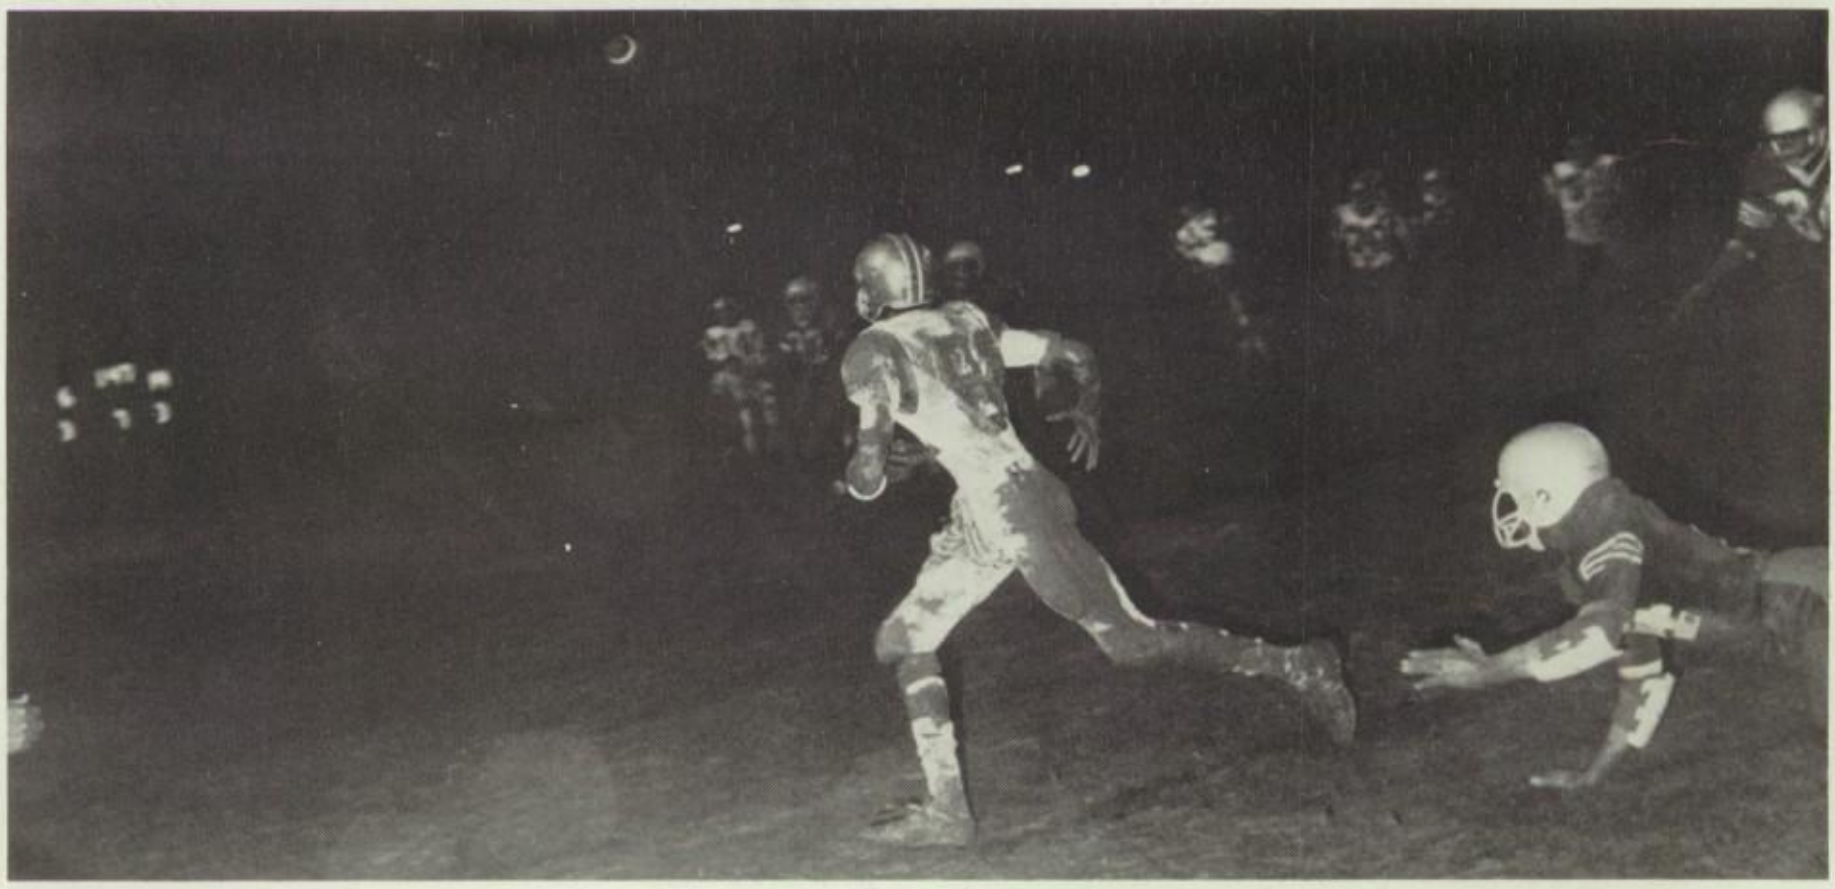
It's not what they look like when they're doing what they're doing. It's what they're doing when they're doing what they look like they're doing. And baby, the Wolfpack expressed themselves.



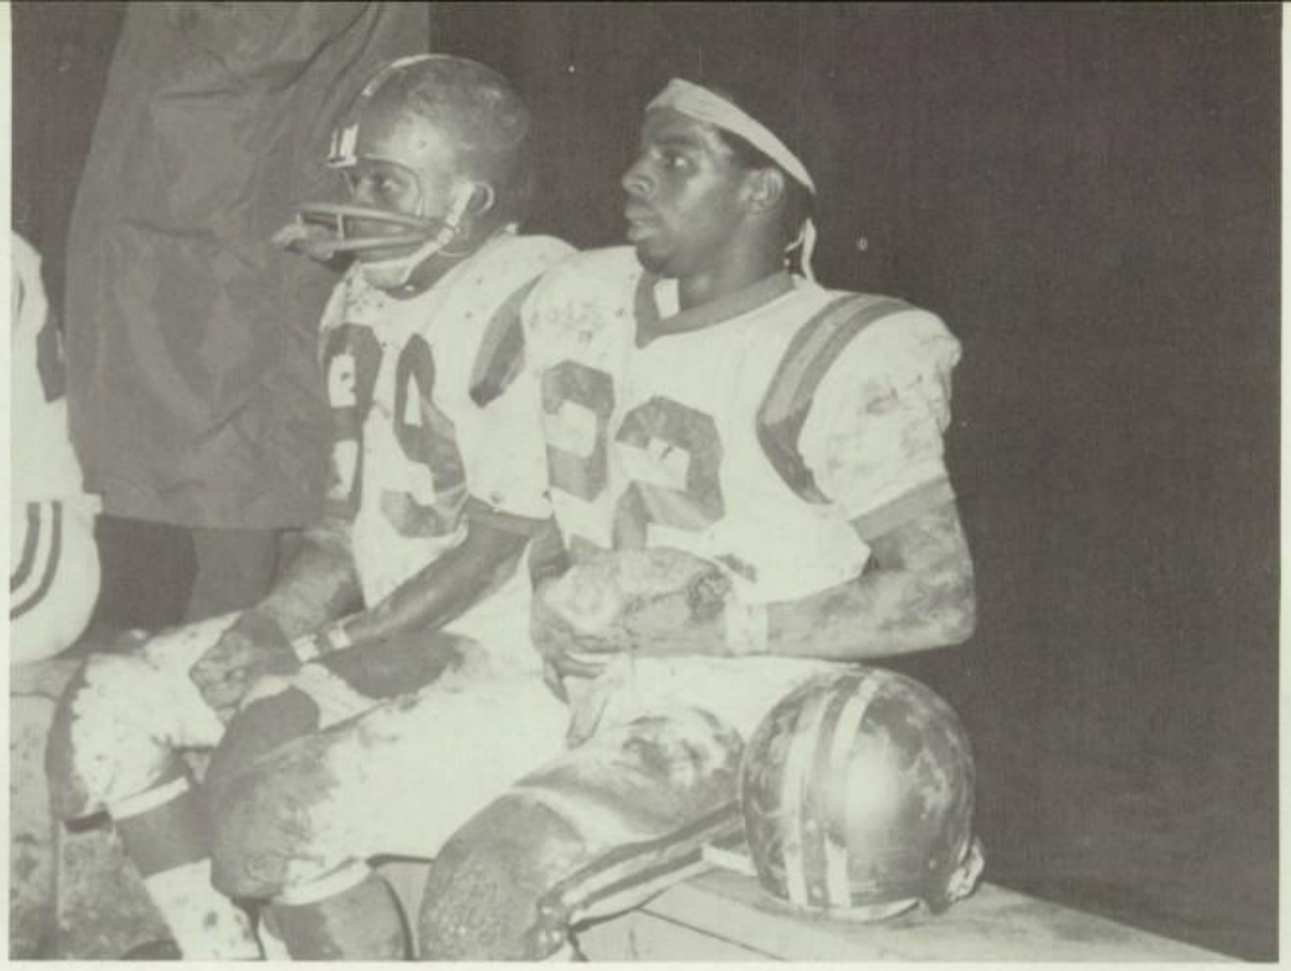


The Wolves had a good season this year. The Wolfpack had some good victories even in the mud.

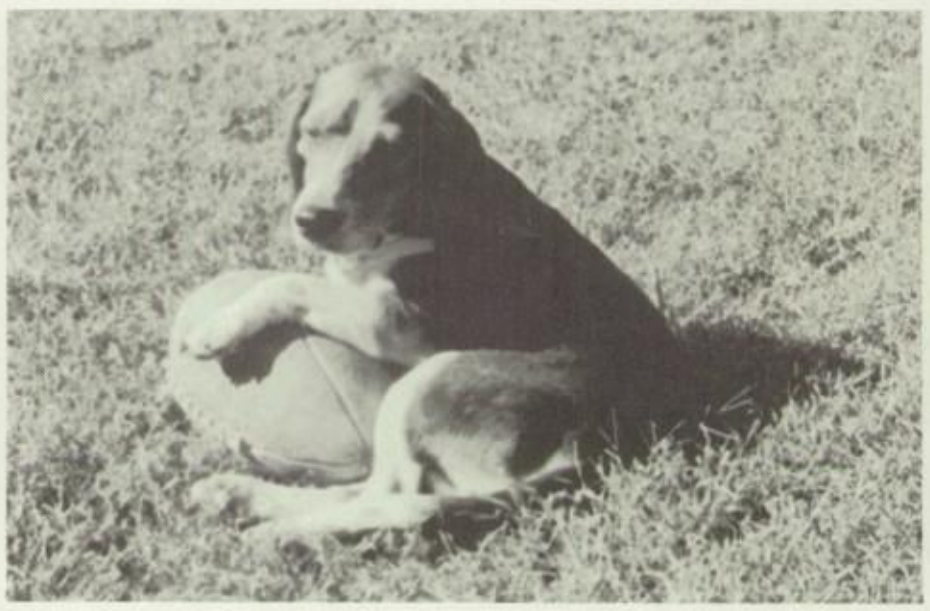


Get it Mike!

How come Fishead is so clean?



Presenting the 1970 Wolfpack



And once again the Wolfpack returns victorious!!!

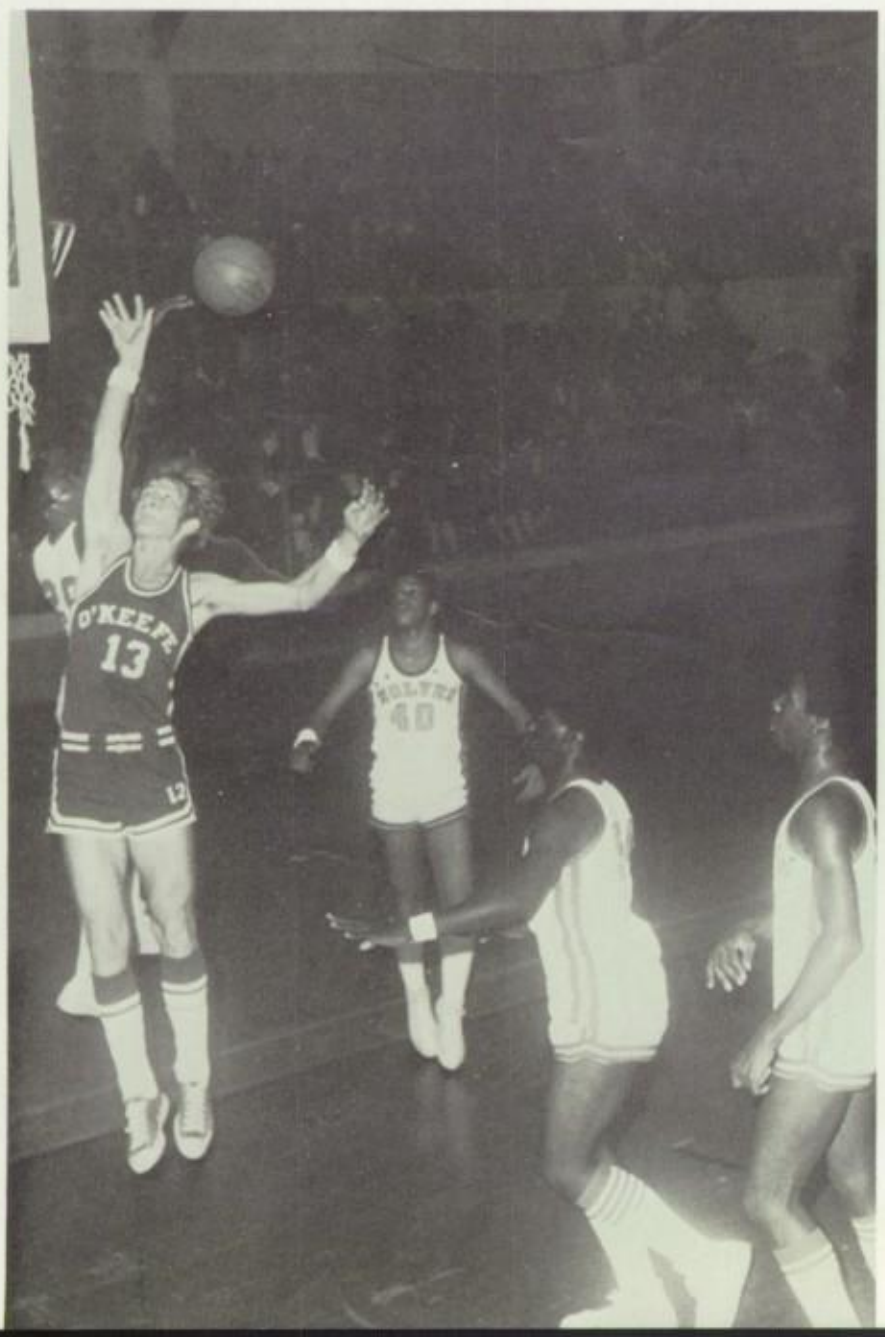
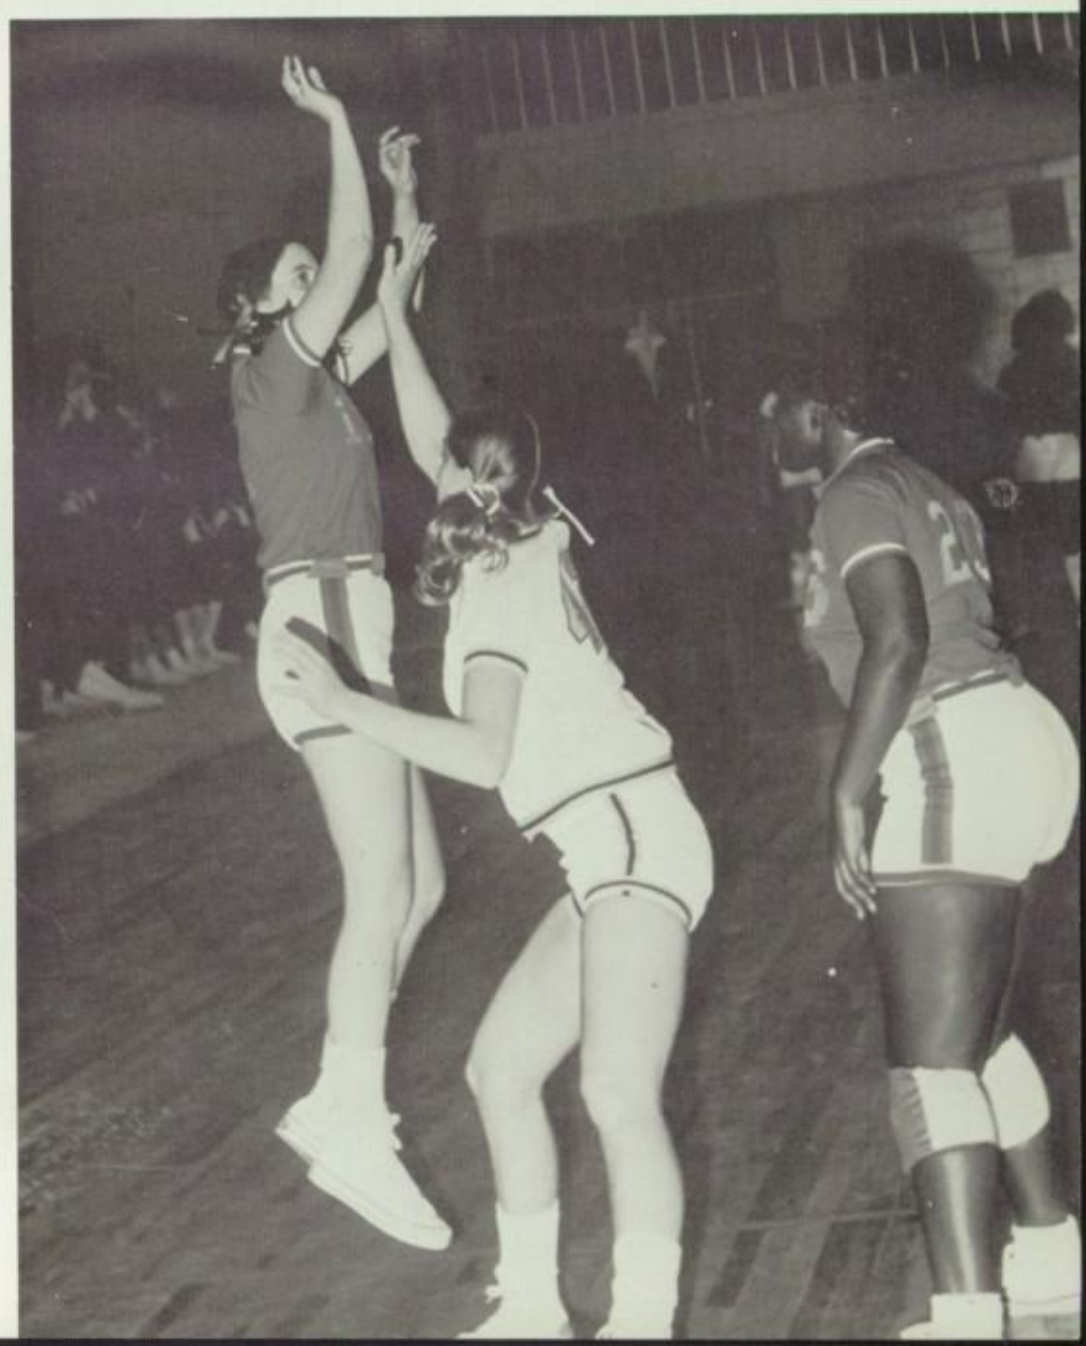
1970-71 Boys' Varsity Basketball Team

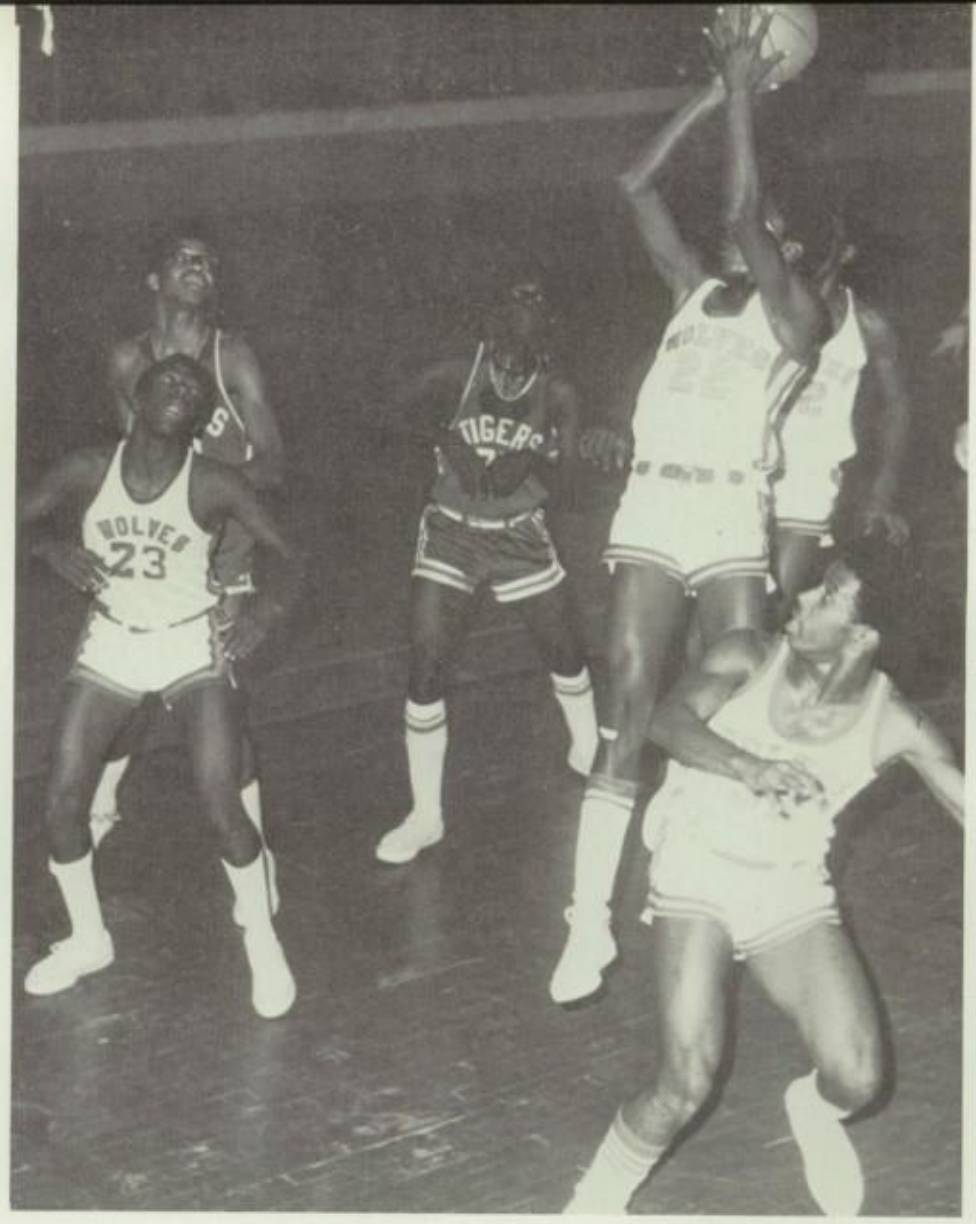


Coach: Anna Wade; Team: Holly Adams, Mary Bray, Sharon Brown, Laposel Burke, Delphine Claggion, Galetha Clemmons.

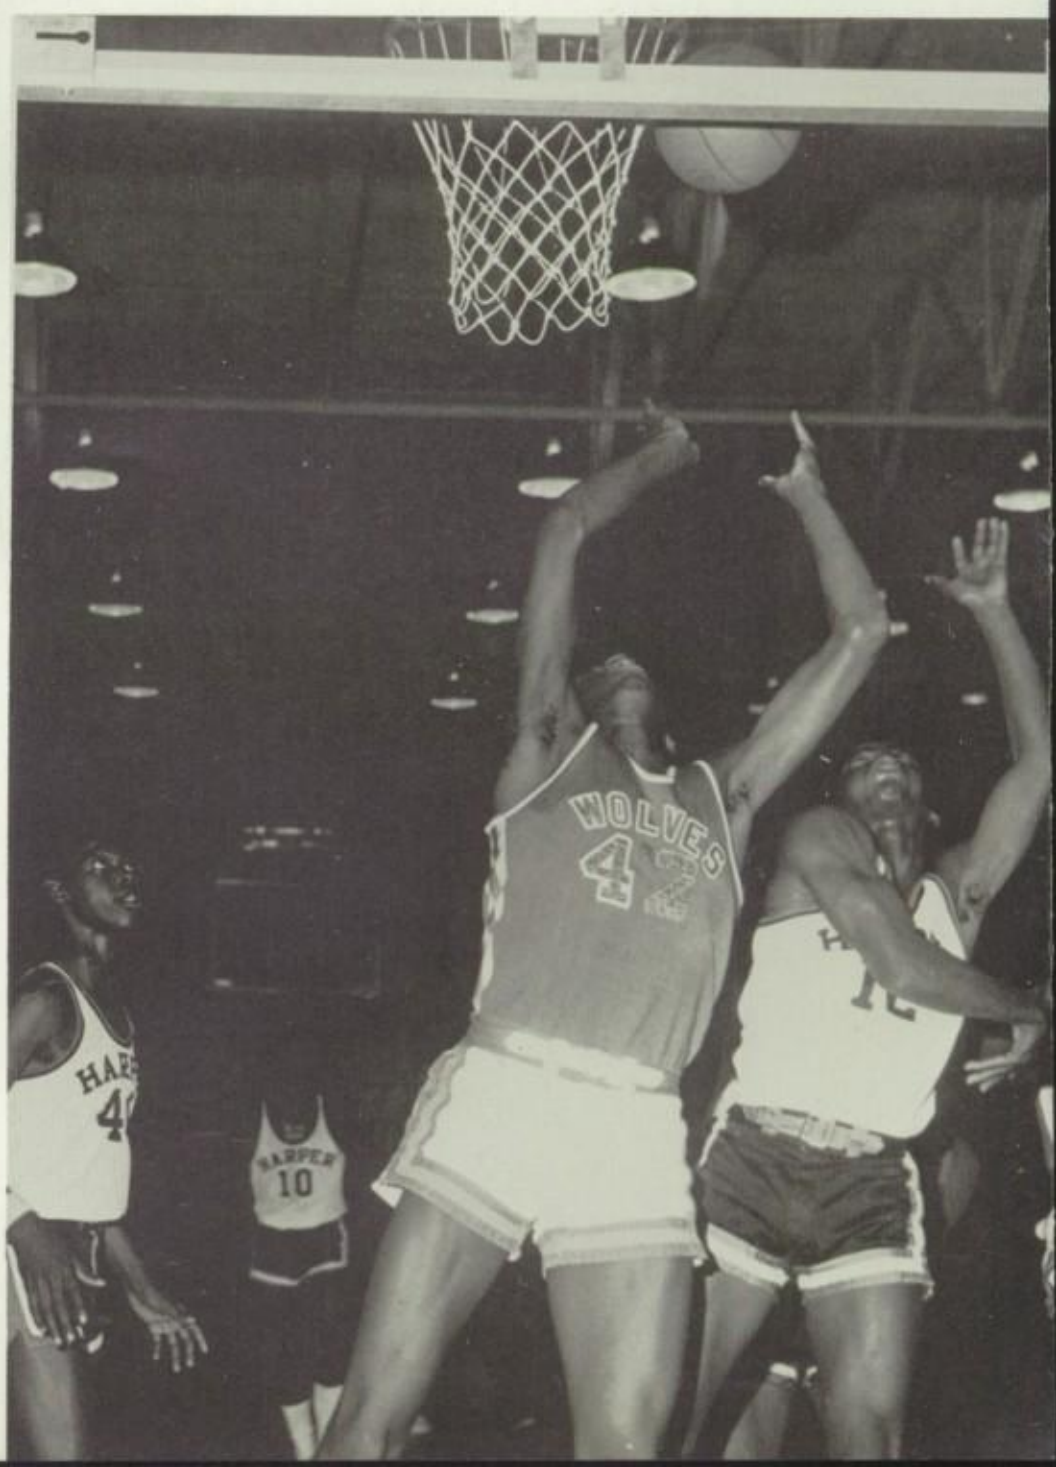
Girls' Basketball

Pam Evans, Greer Geiger, Sherialyn Kelley, Beverly Monroe, Lisa Walker, Emmaria Wimby.





B-Team and 8th



Hats off to Varsity stars of tomorrow. The B-Team managed to achieve an undefeated season and the 8th grade (far right) had a record of 7-3.

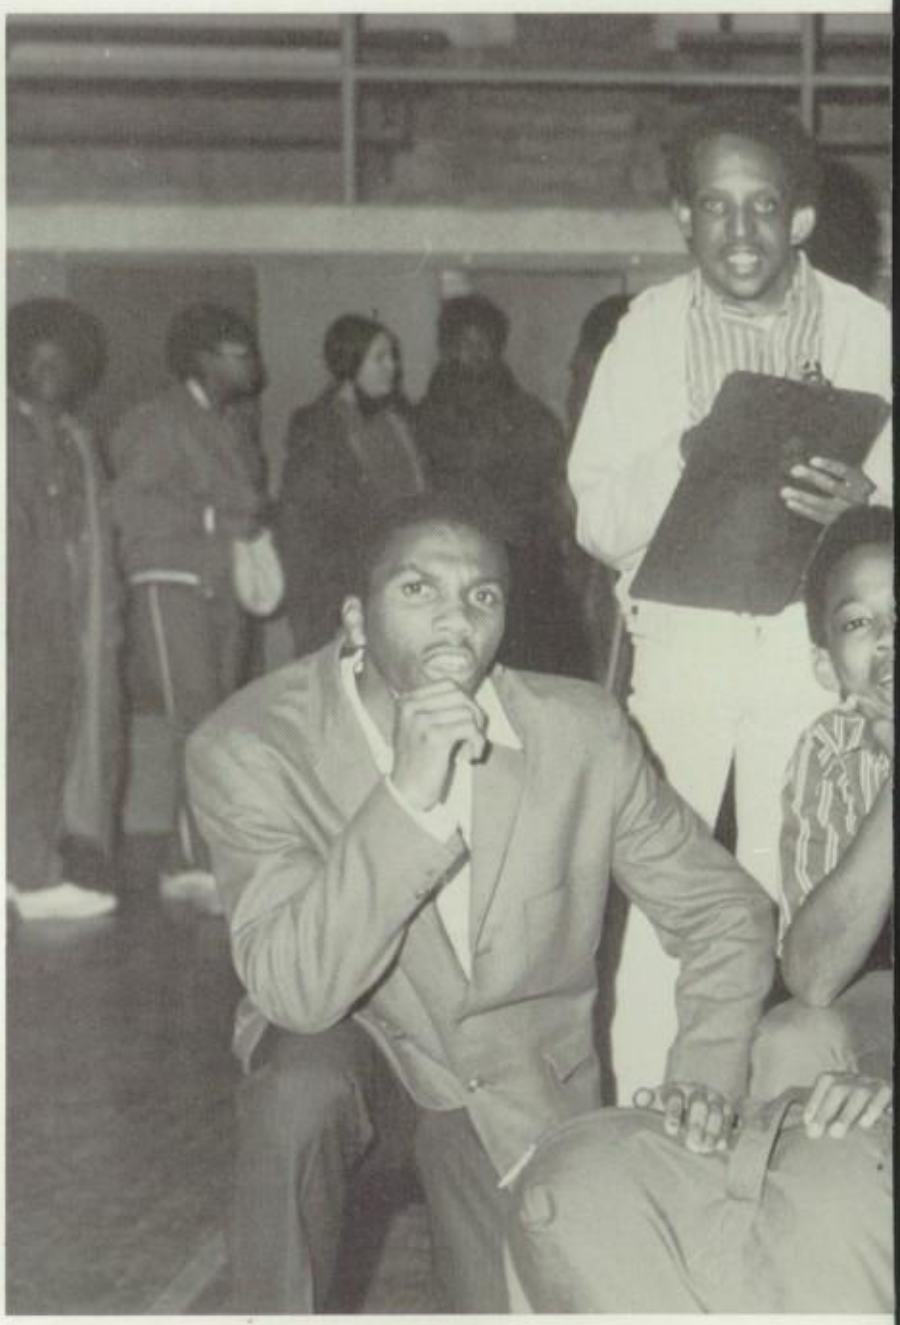
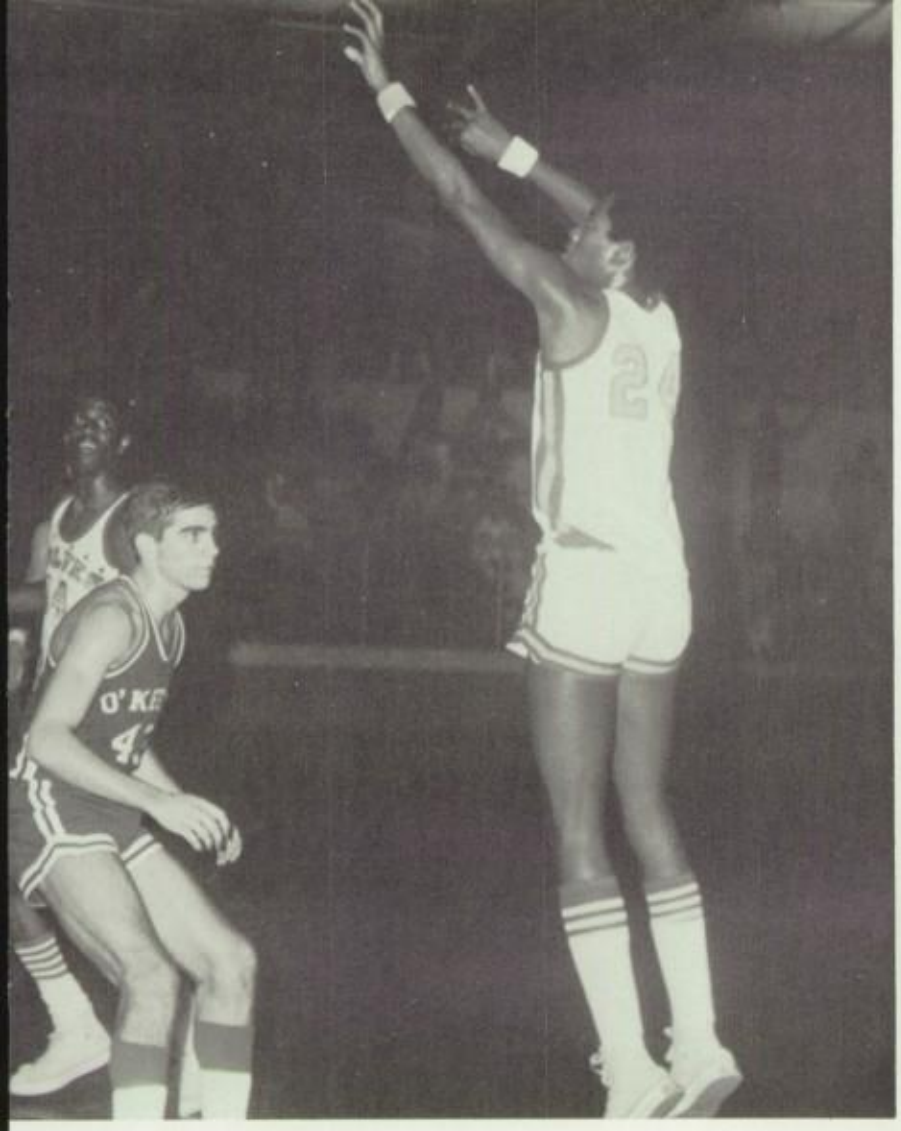
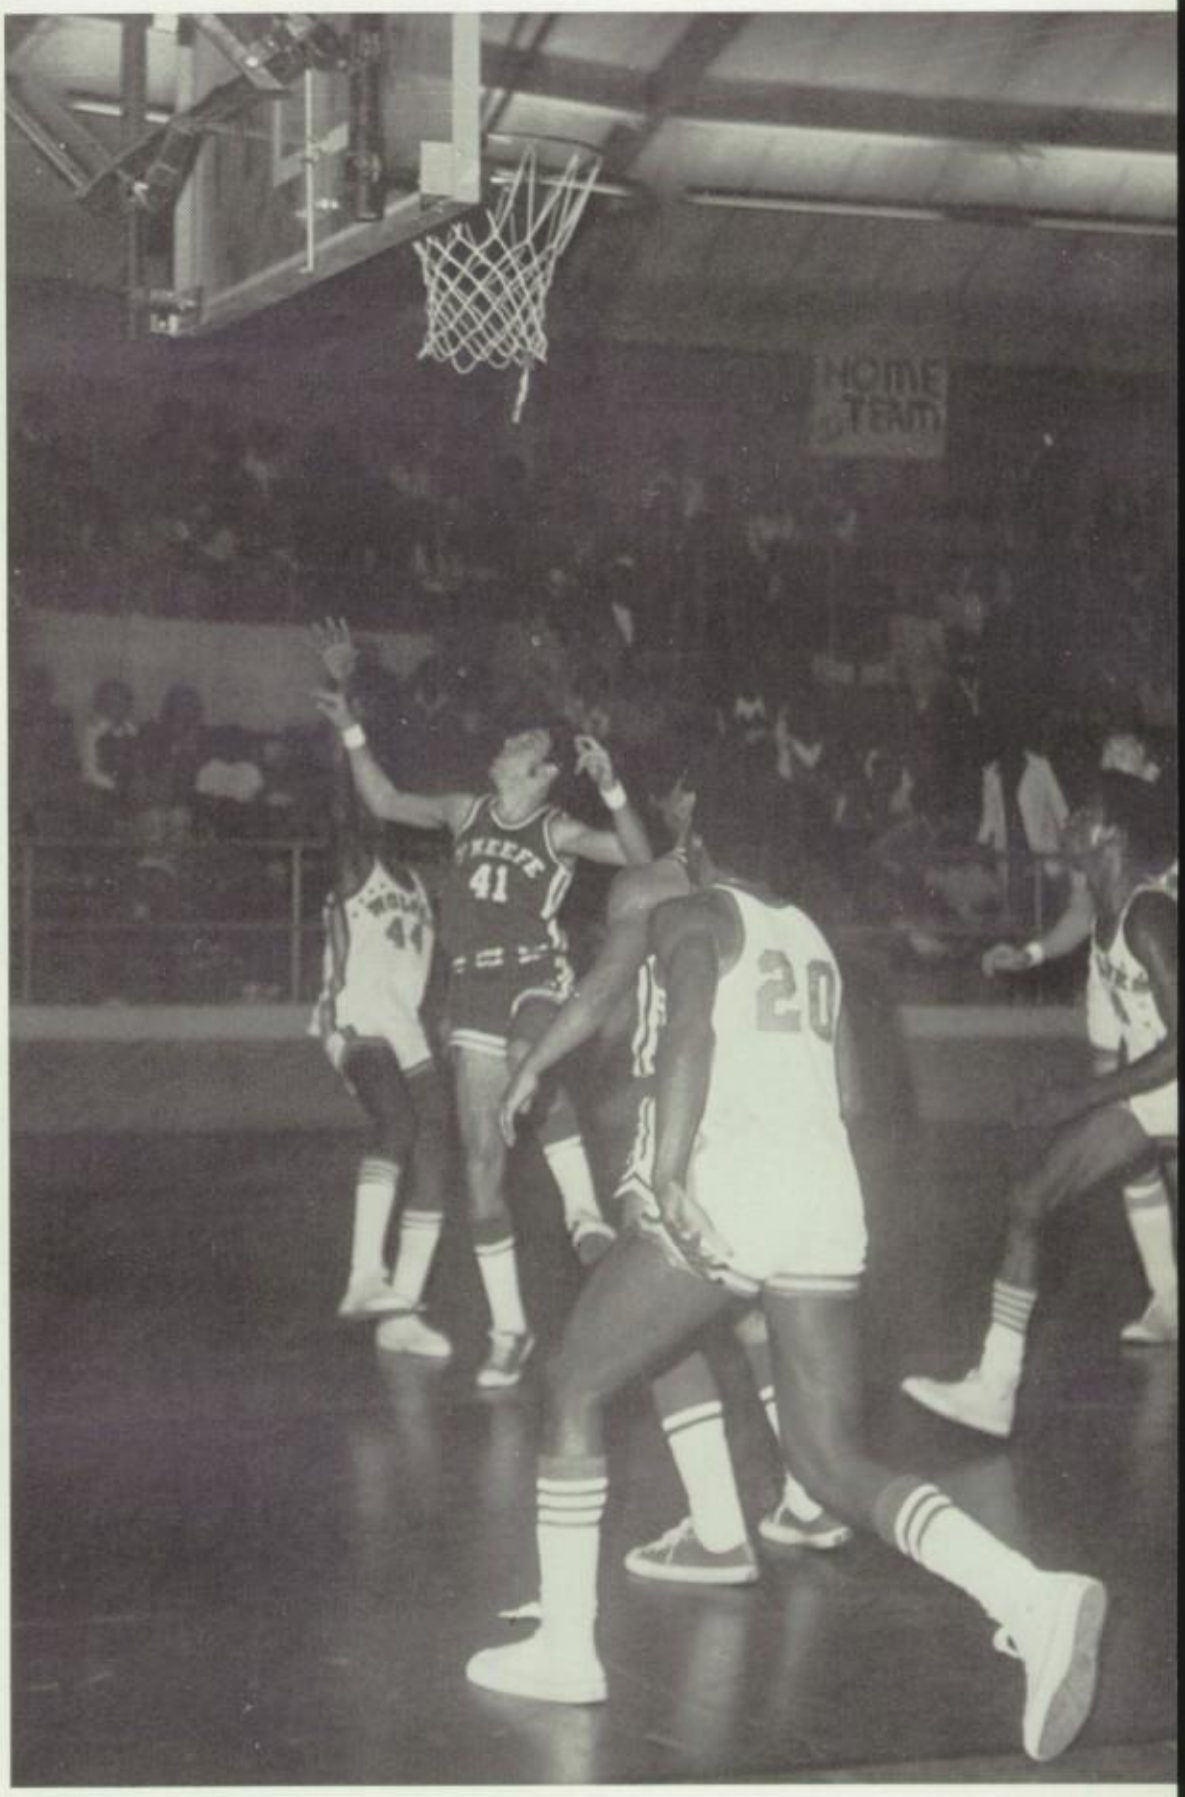
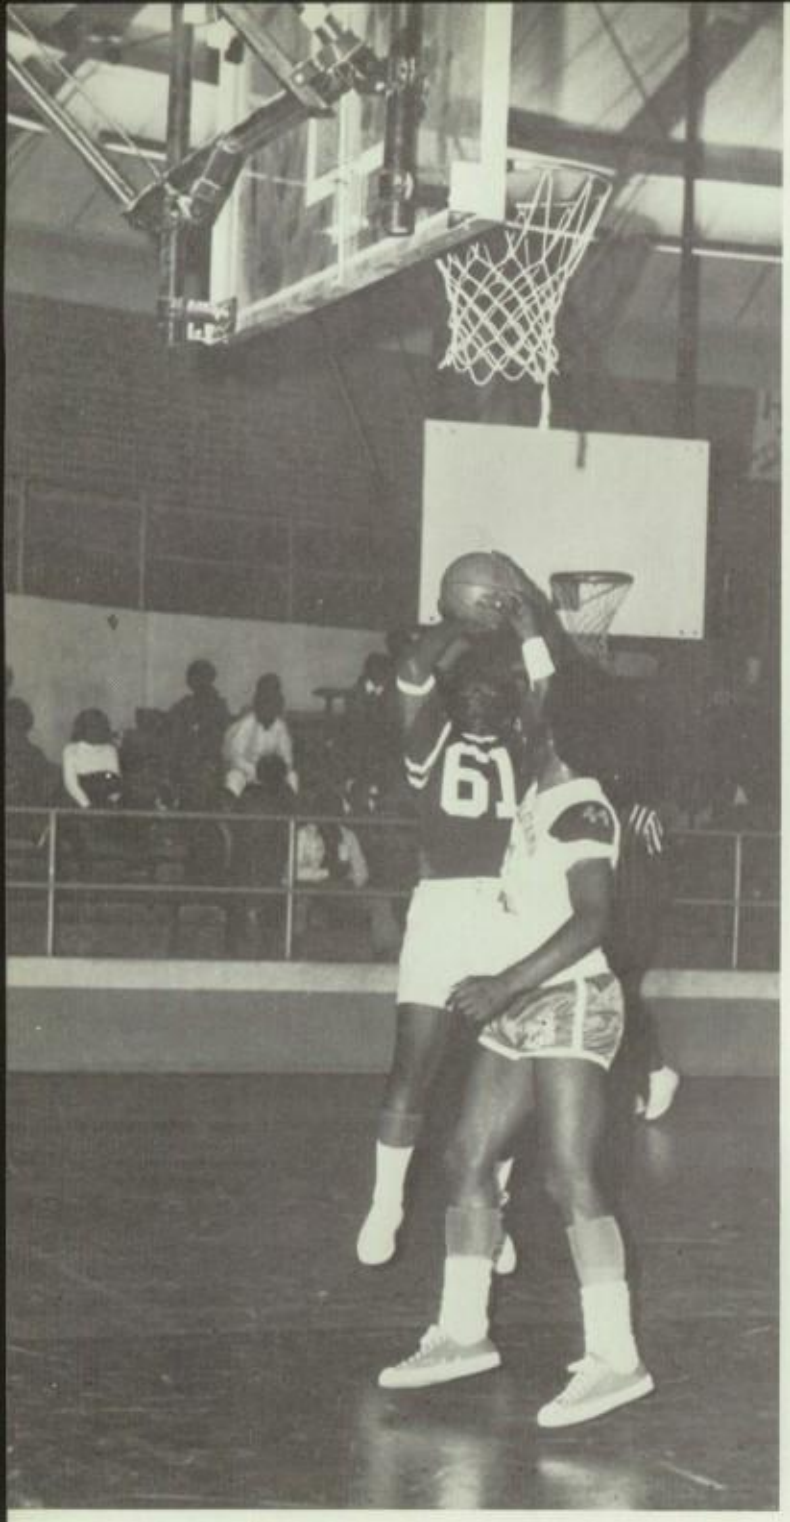
Wolf





Power



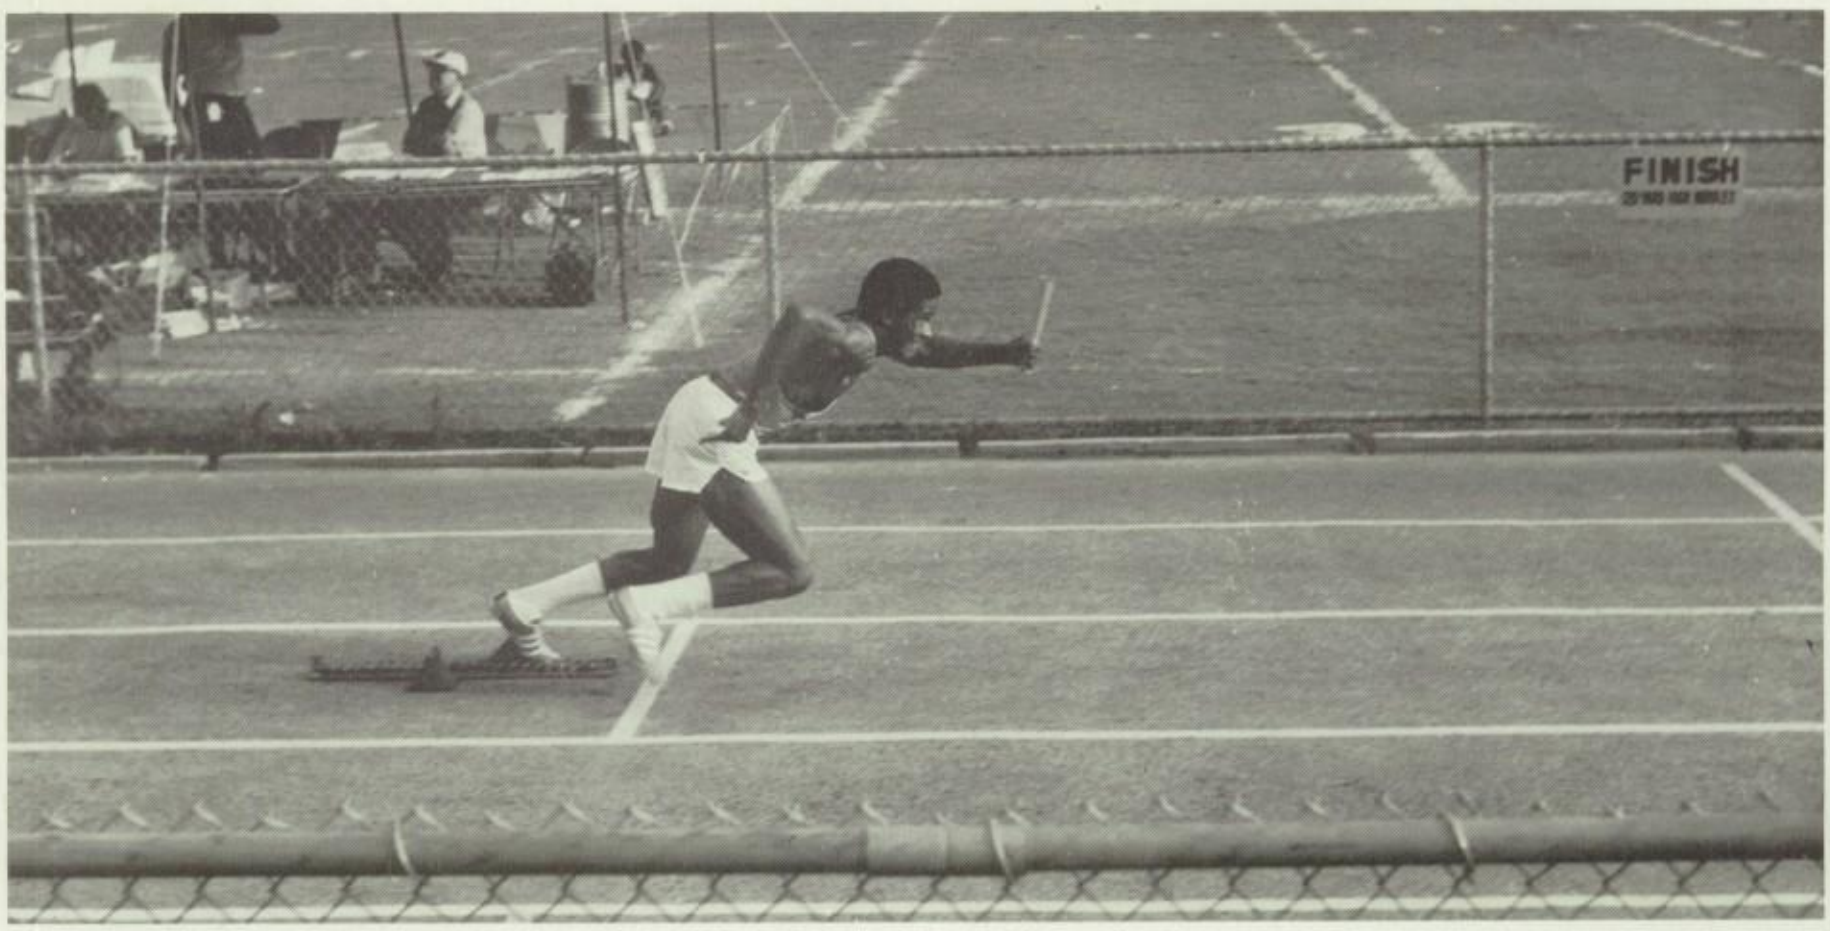


"Uptight, alright and out of sight!"

Under the superb leadership of fabulous Coach Charles Mason, the faculty basketball team had a record season of one win and two losses. Coach Mason must be commended for his efforts. After all he only had teachers to work with.

Cross Country

Running was our game. Wolf Striders was our name, and winning was our thang.



1970-71 Varsity Wolfstriders

As is traditional, the Wolfstriders had a very good year this year. They run in one of the most competitive regions there is, yet they manage to keep coming up with winning teams. Out of 16 region records, Southwest's superstars have managed to hold 10. The 1970 region champs went on to repeat this year with another classic track team.

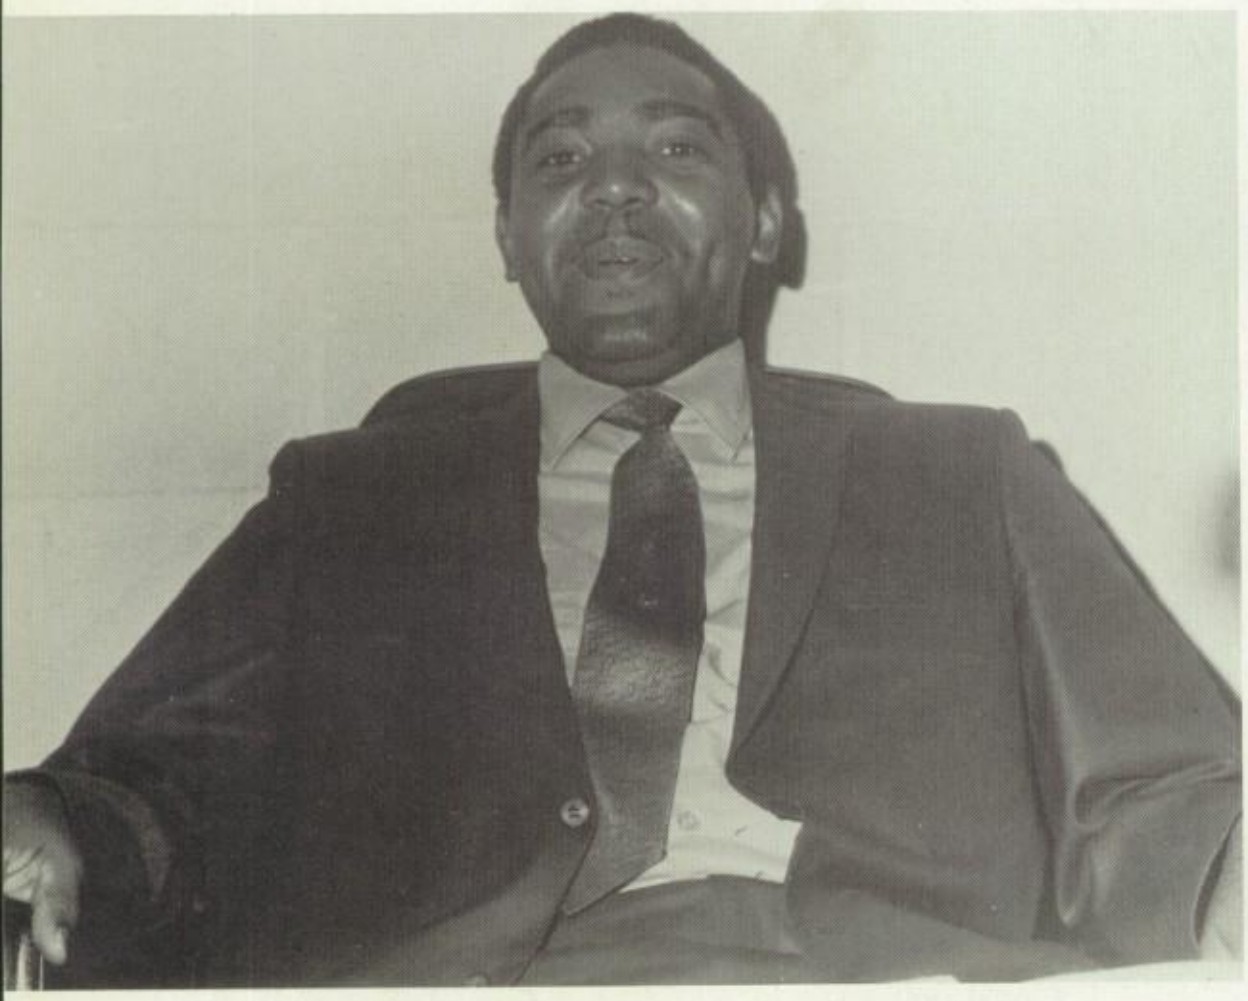
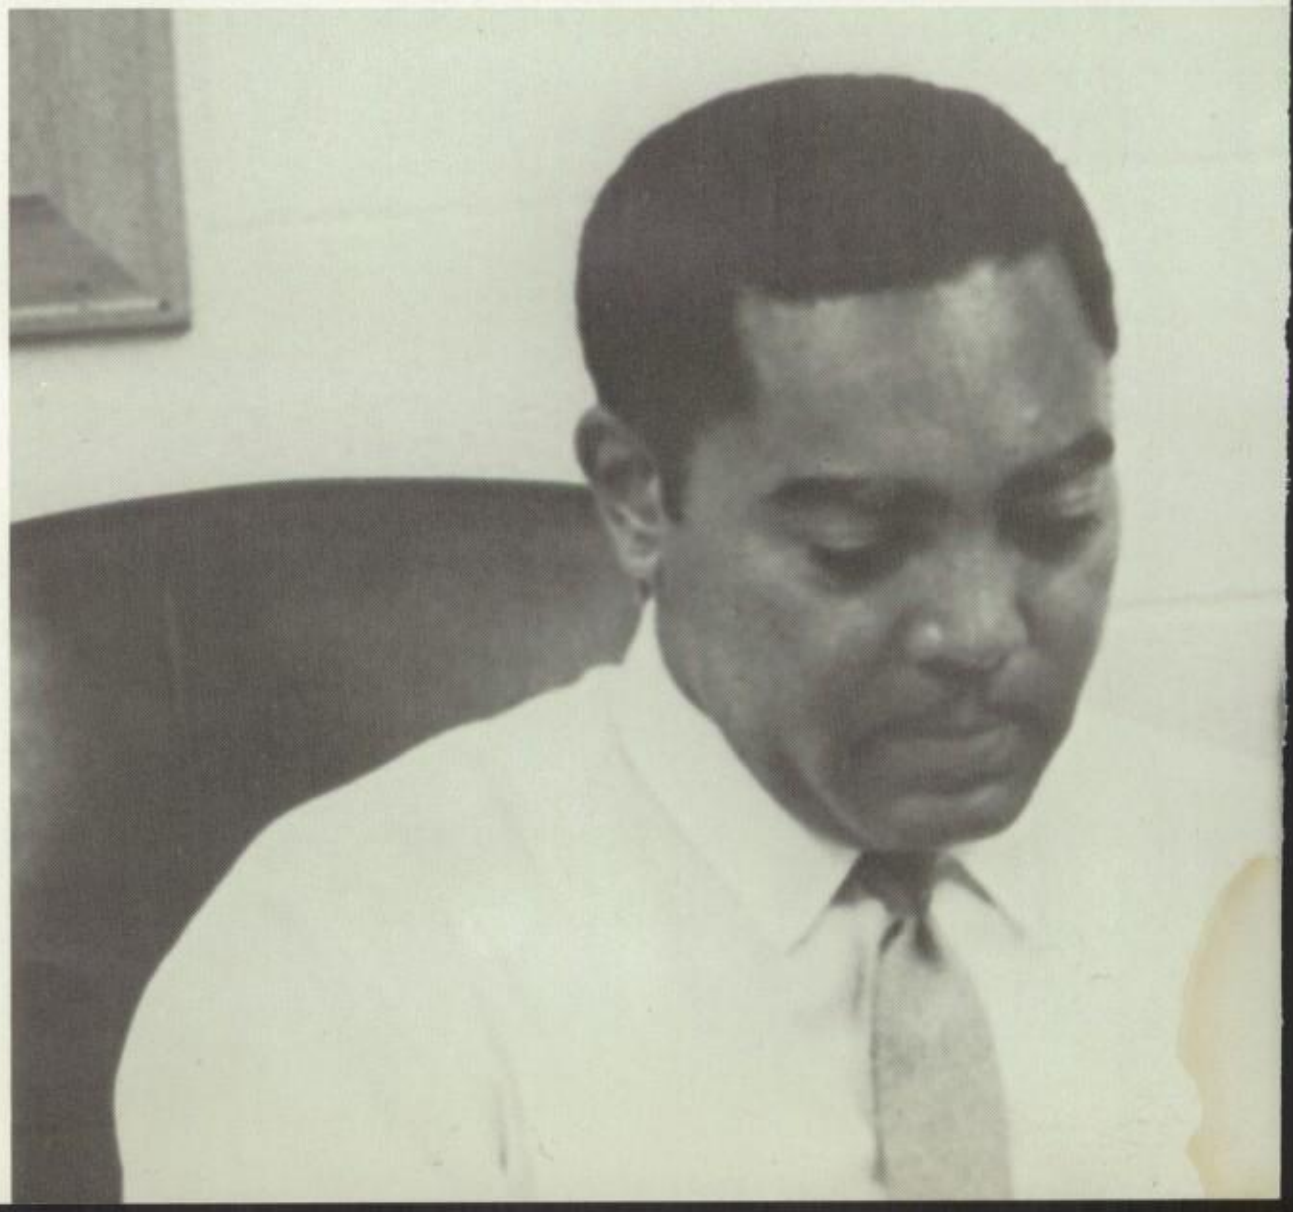
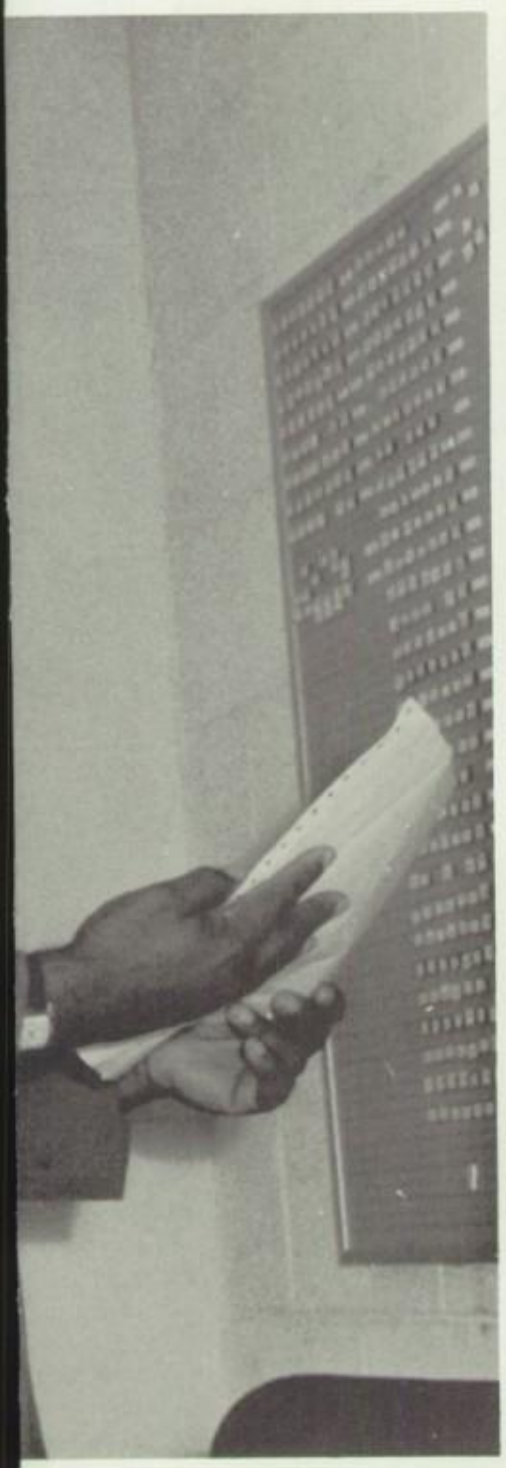
Dedication

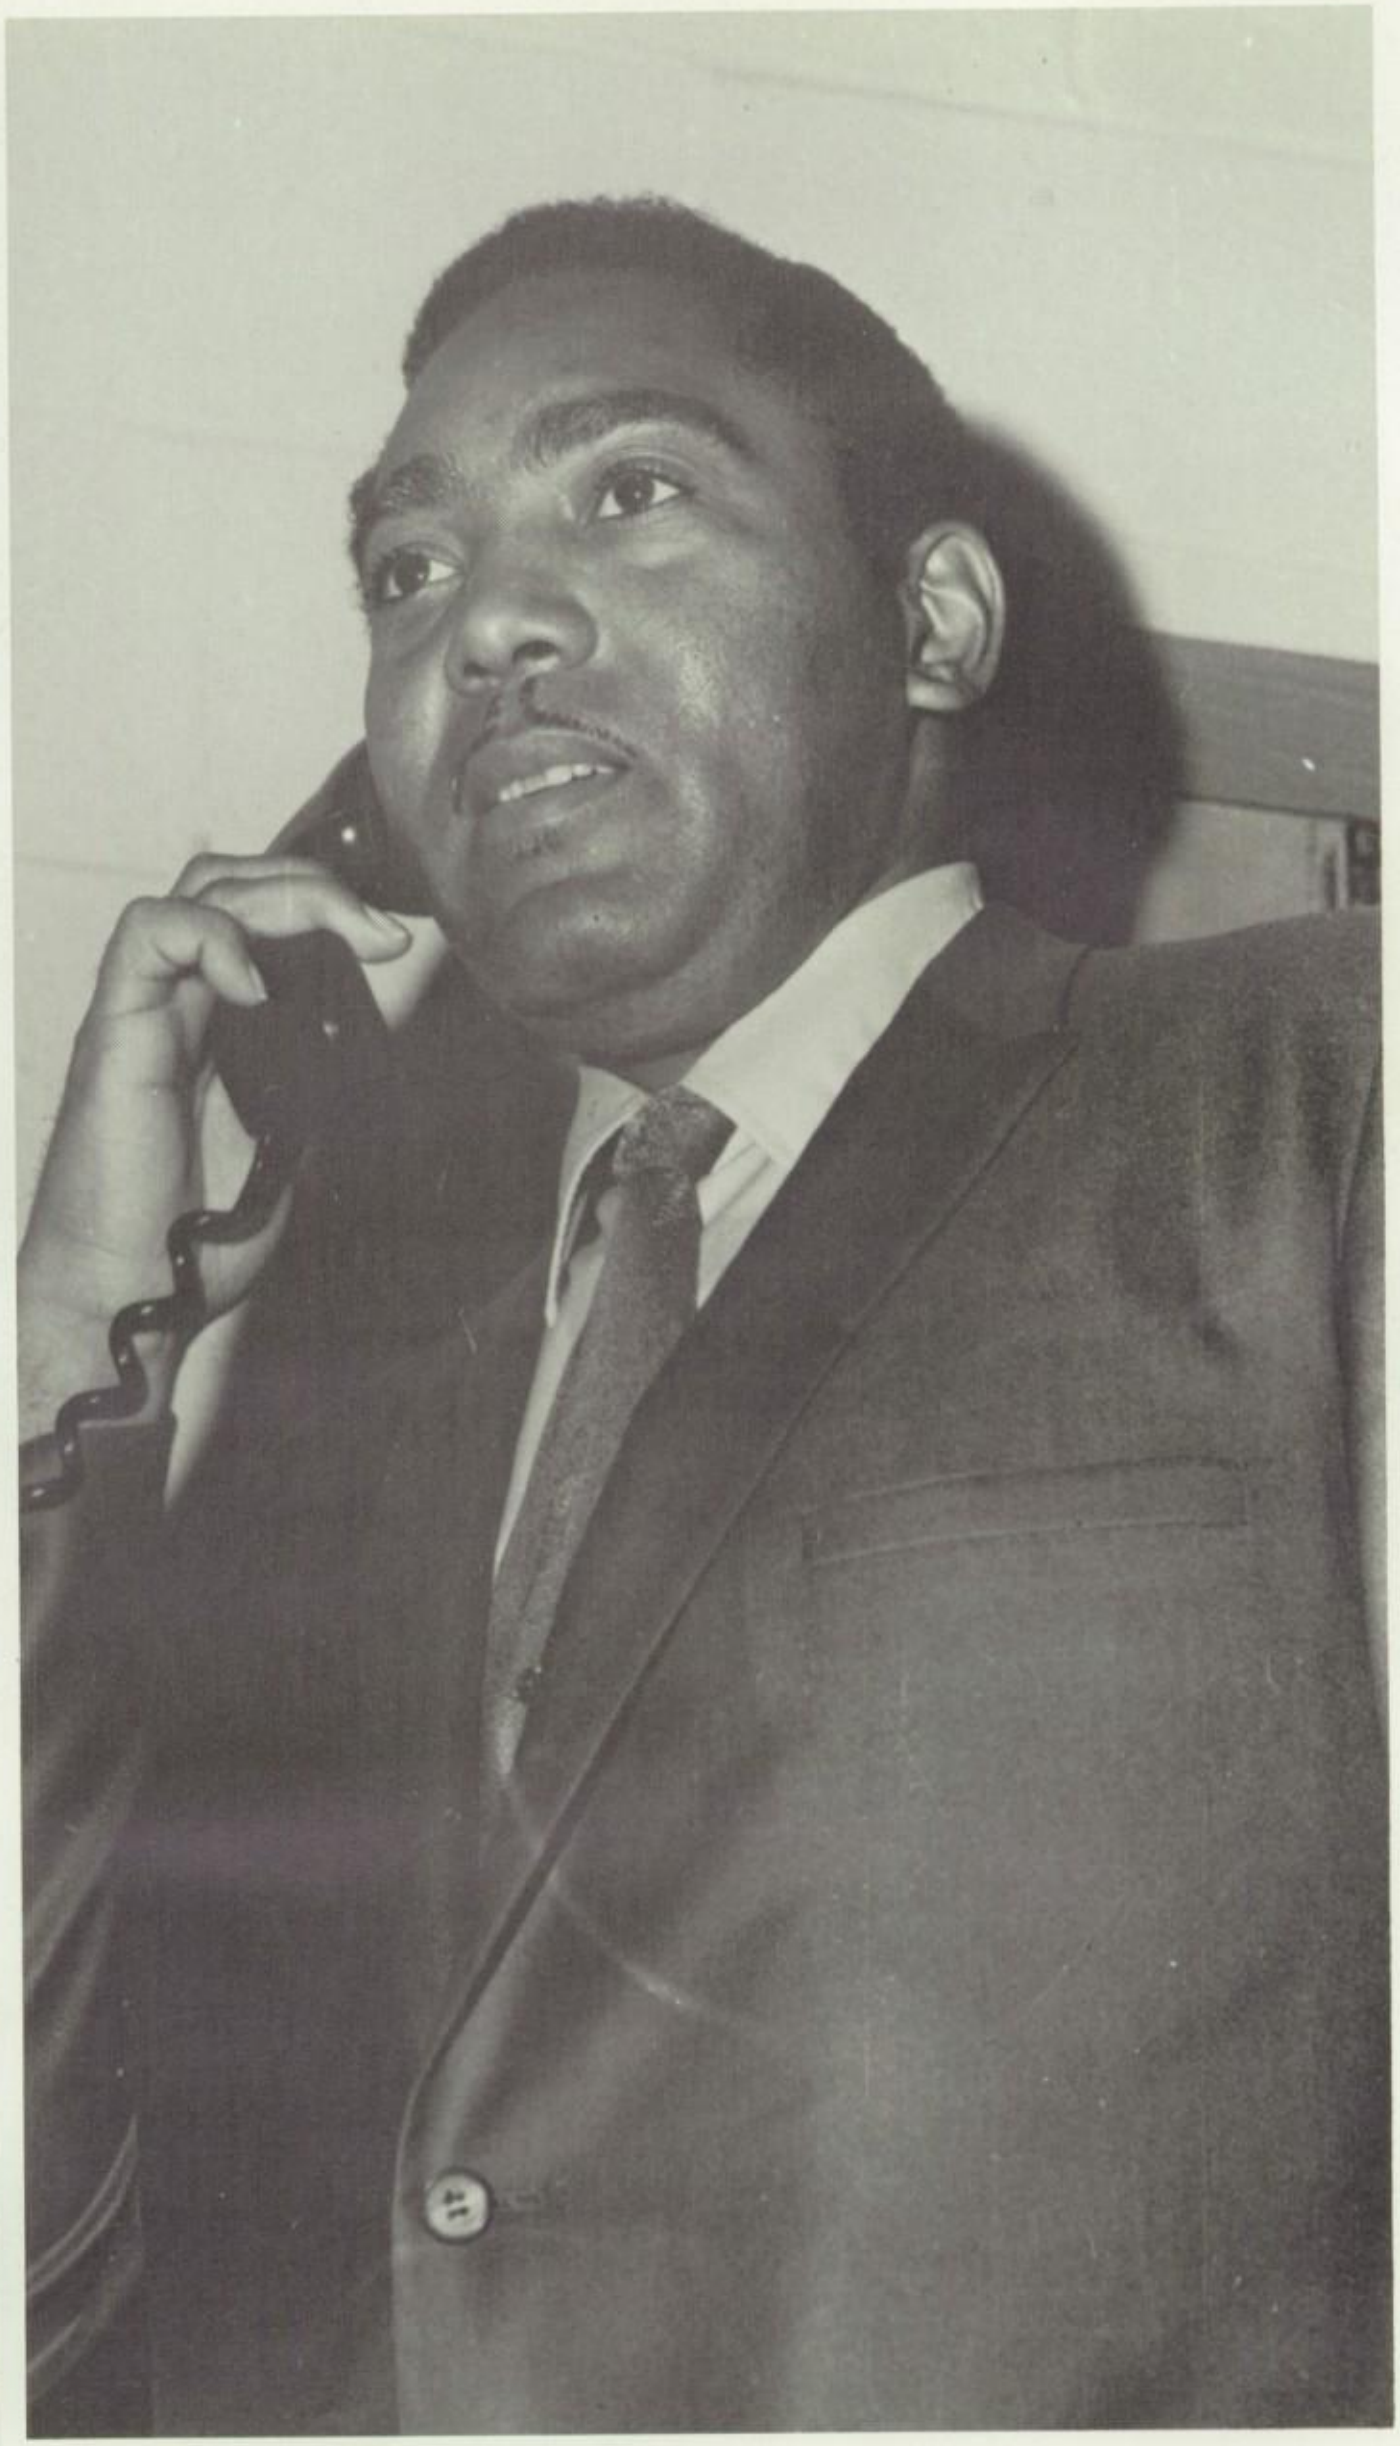


This year, there's a new face at Southwest. It belongs to the strongest leader-figure Southwest has had for years — he's there for everything that happens. He's for learning as well as athletics. He's united us more than anyone has in years. He assumed a difficult job and he's been a success. He's our principal.

Charles R. Mason







Editor's Epilogue

Dear Staff,

Before you lies the 1970-71 Resume — a unique investment of time and talent. Each of you is to be thanked for your individual efforts now consumated to produce this book: a culmination of the twenty years of the school's existence — three years of my experience and one year of our combined efforts as a staff. While creating the '70-71 Resume I have become increasingly aware of just how appropriate our theme, the labyrinth, is. As a staff we have managed to overcome personal differences, a change in staff advisor, school principal and publishing company. Yet, we have a permanent record, the Resume of this year.

To be recognized for their personable contributions to the book are Charles Moreland, Paragon Publishing Company's representative and Charles Mason, Southwest's principal. Mrs. Norton, the staff advisor is to be congratulated and encouraged for her valiant efforts as a "fledgling advisor!" It is with the deepest appreciation that I thank my friend, Mr. Eugene Bales, for his tireless concern and endless assistance during the creation of this book. To Kevin, the better half of the editor-ship, my esteem and true conviction that this book would not 'be' without him.

Dear Staff,

After three continuous years of working I pick up my pen for the last time to write my final letter. I'm not going to evaluate the contents of this book. That's not my job; that's the job of all of you and everyone that looks at this book. You are the ones that I must evaluate. I think that it's been a strain on everybody. We've had one problem after another and more changes in staff, personel and publishers than any year in a long time, but still we were able to produce a book. I think all of you functioned well and did what you were told. I fell down in not dividing up the work more evenly.

There is a multitude of people that helped us get through this year. Thanks to Marlin Humphrey, Don Ethridge, Jerry Jordan for working with the photographers; to C. Malcolm Newell Photography for their work — especially in the clutch; to Mr. Mason for all his help and interest; to Mr. Bales for your needed help and encouragement; to Mrs. Norton for all your patience and cooperation; to Louise for doing the other half of the editor's work.

This year's book is yours; you have been forced to make the decisions yourselves. Enjoy it.

Sincerely,

Kevin

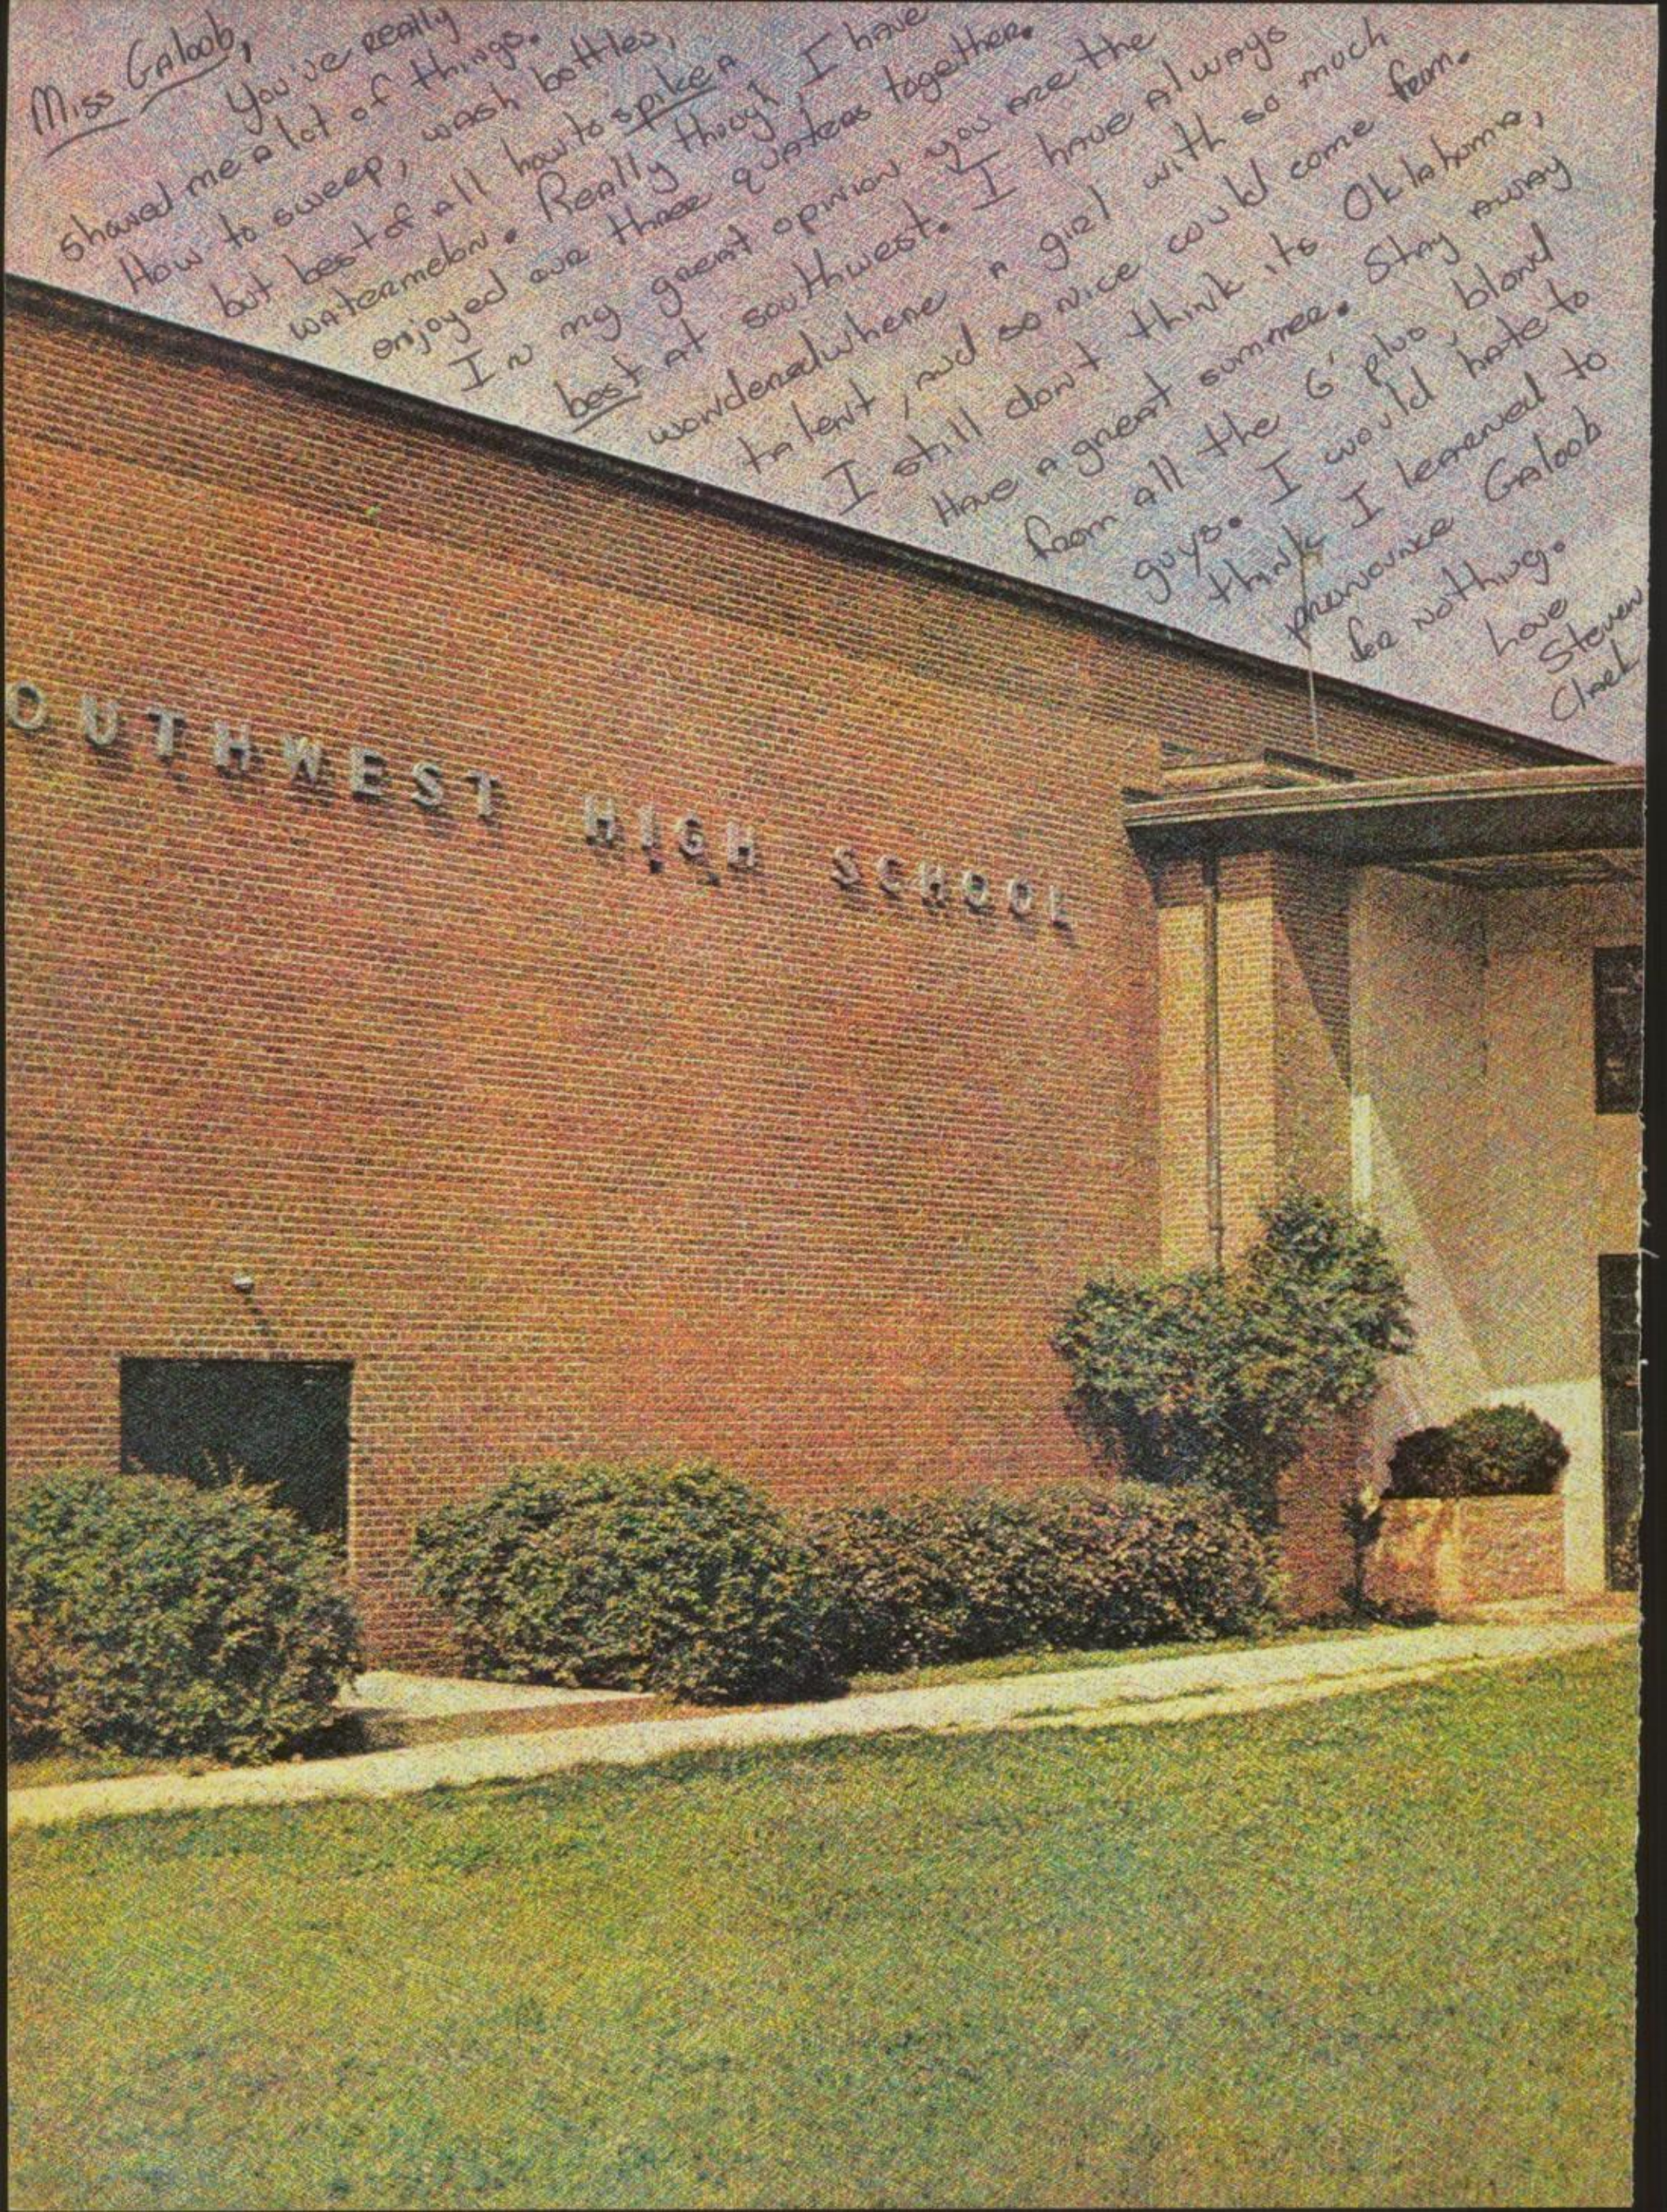
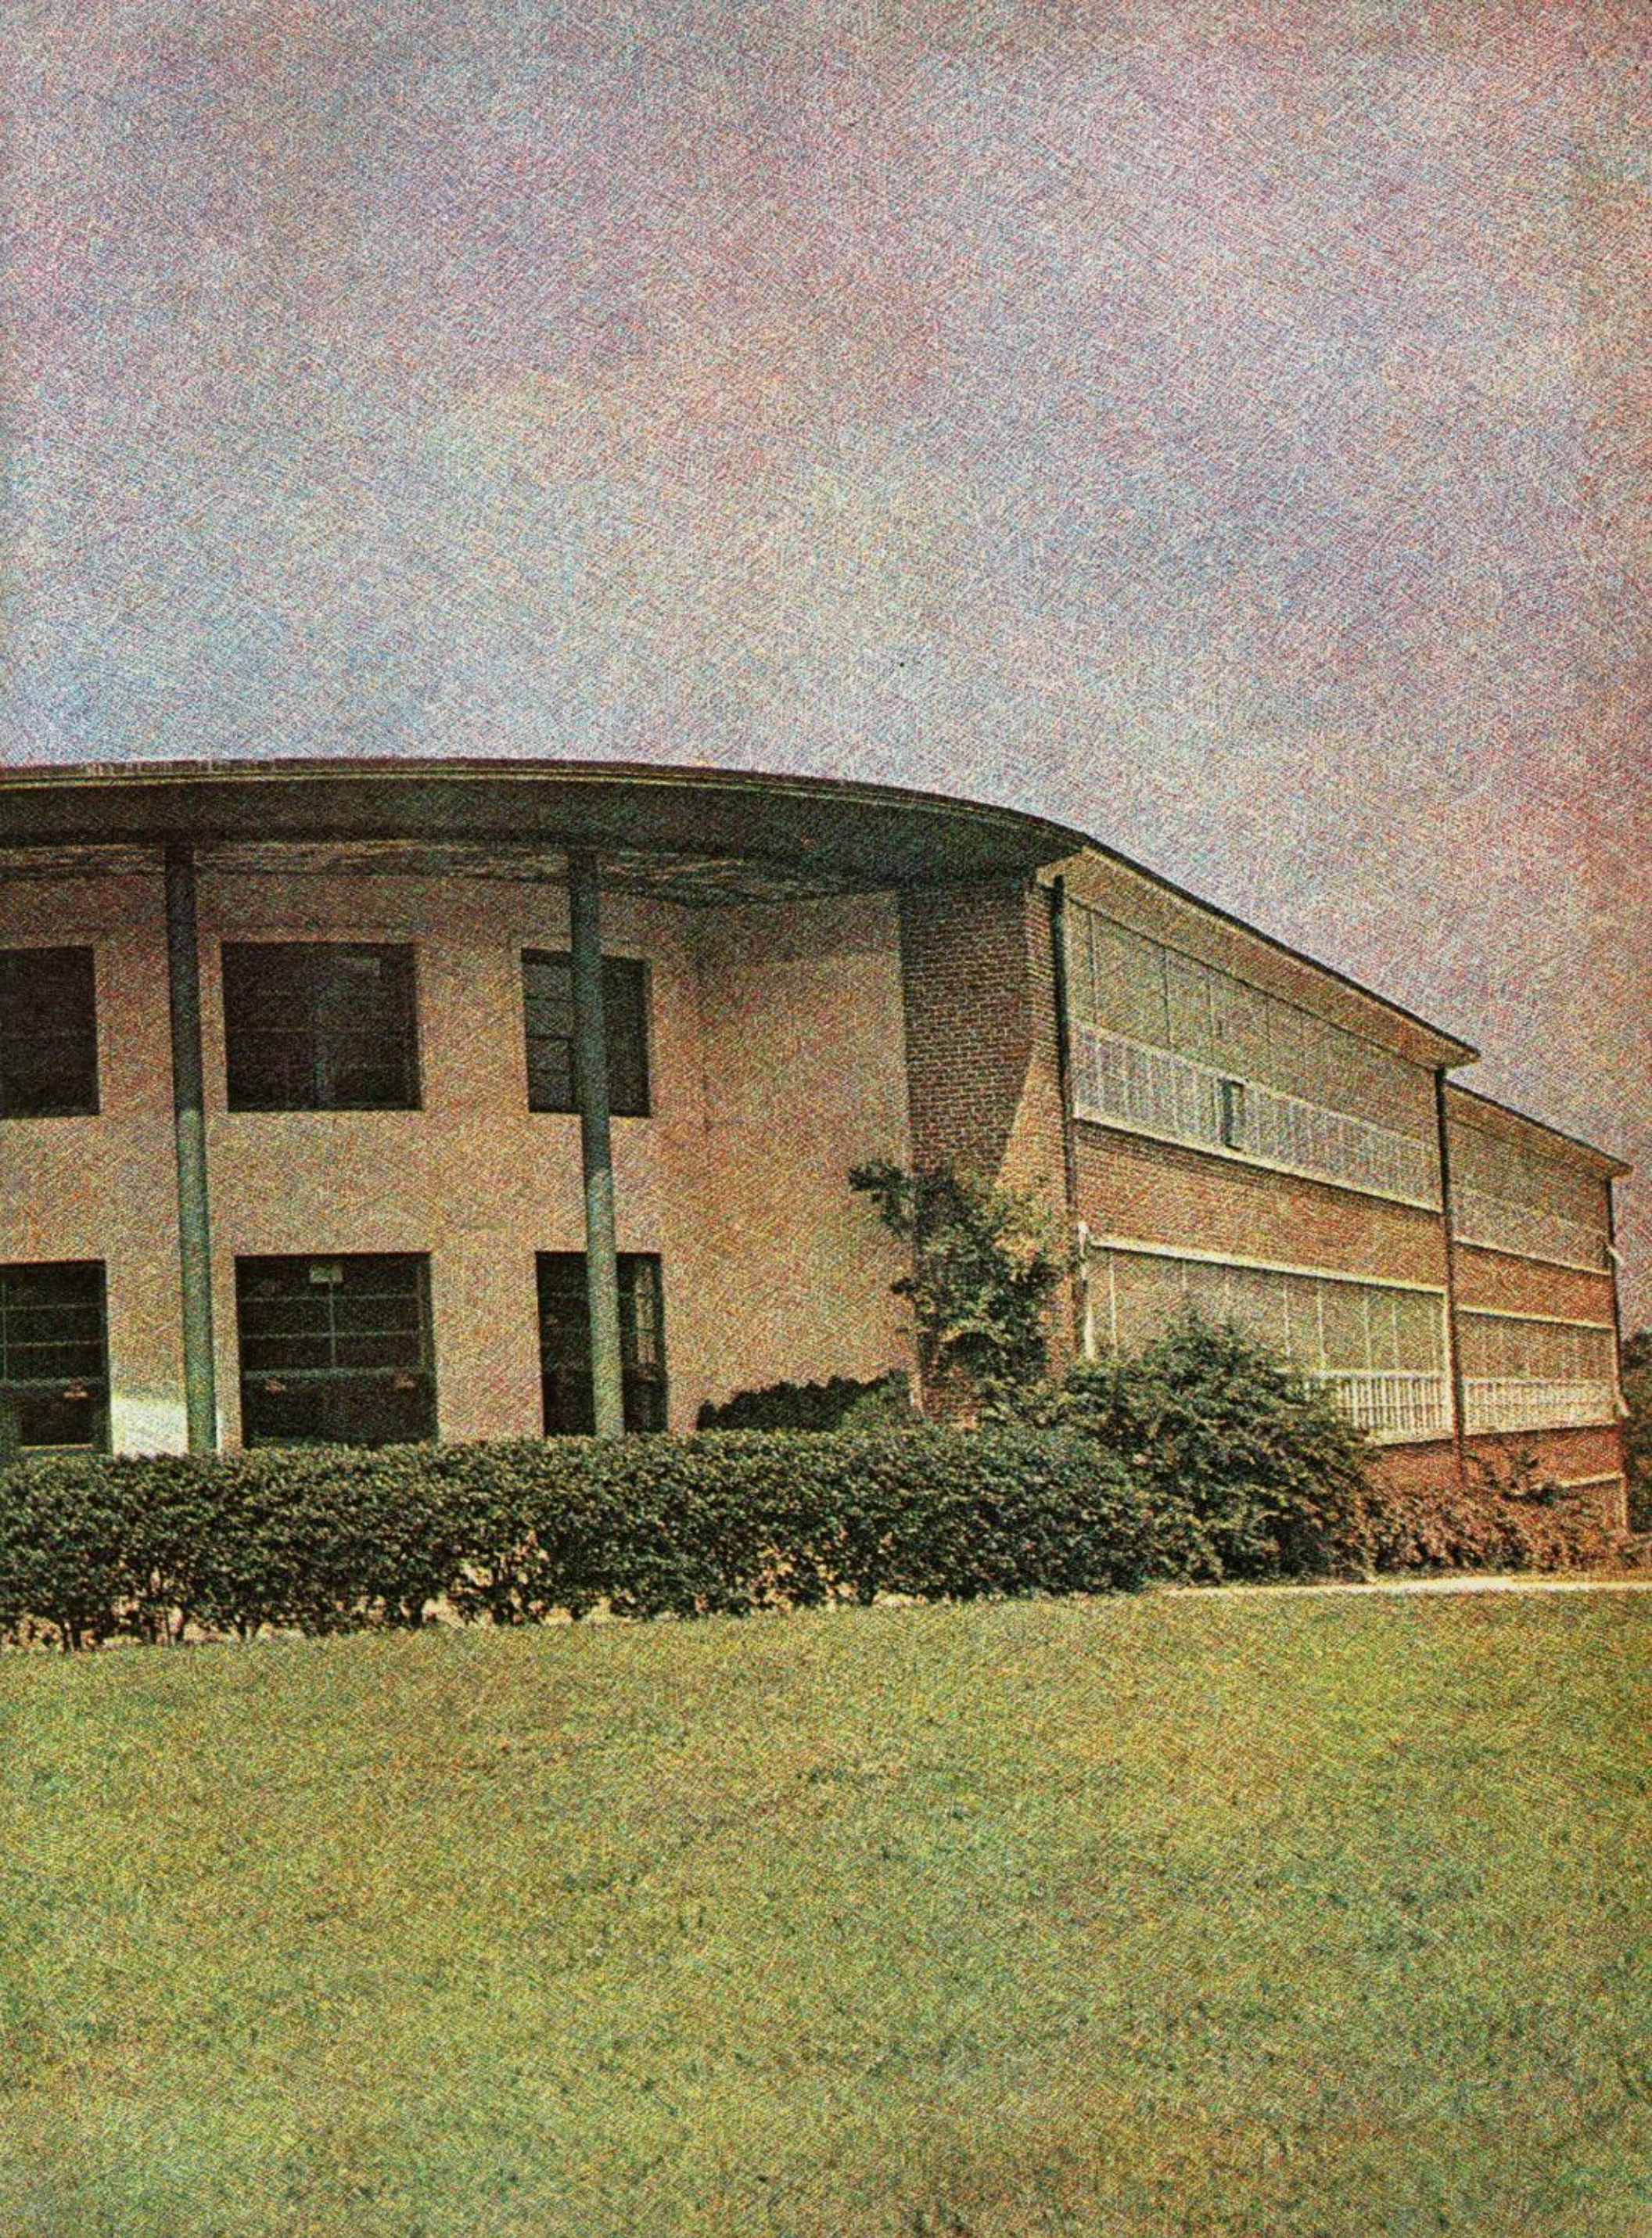
ARAGON YEARBOOKS




Miss Galoob,
You've really
shaved me a lot of things.
How to sweep, wash bottles,
but best of all how to spike a watermelon. Really things I have enjoyed over these 2 years together.
In my great opinion you are the best at southwest. I have always wondered where a girl with so much talent, and so nice could come from.
I still don't think its Oklahoma,
Have a great summer. Stay away from all the G'plus, blond guys. I would hate to think I leaned to pronounce Galoob
to nothing.
Love
